One of the all-time favorites at school is sitting on the patio and spending time with friends.

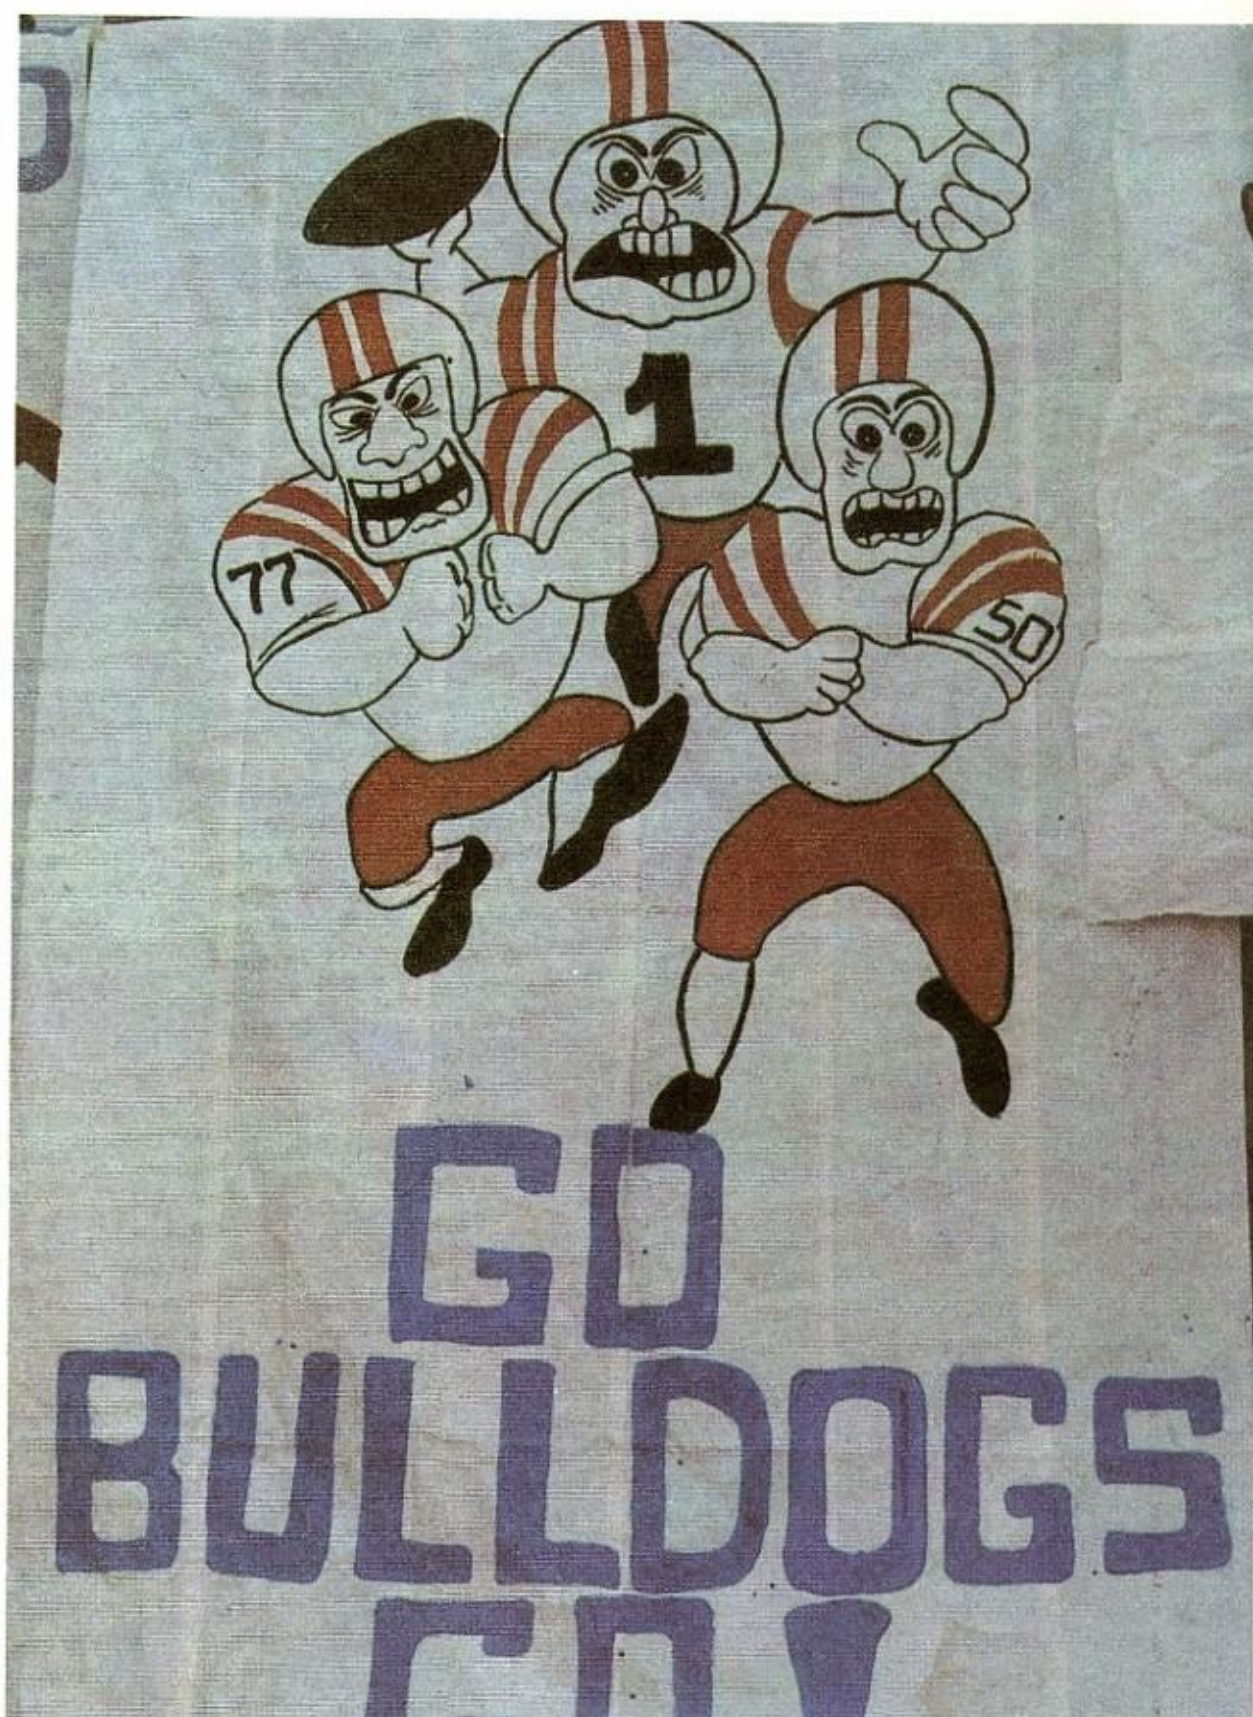

Spirit shown many times in many ways

Mr. Mueller laughs at the activities of Senior Week.

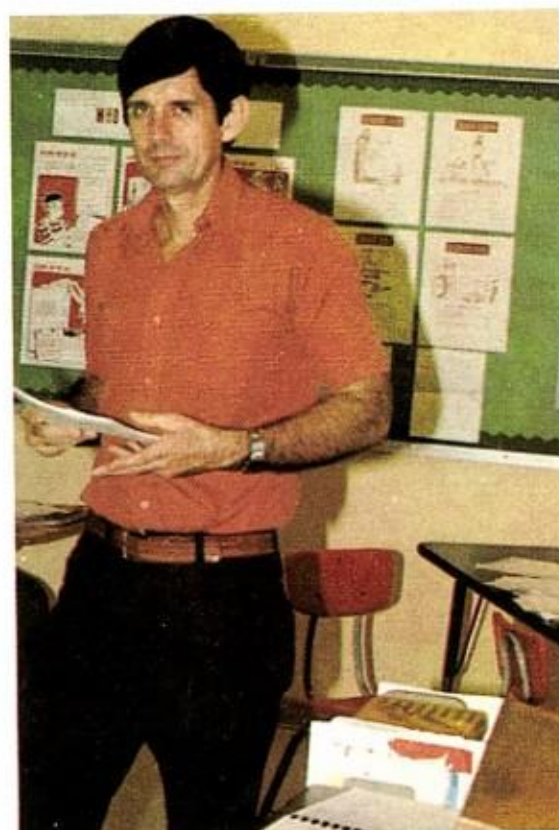

Even Luther gets in on the fun.

Bulldog strength is shown in many ways.

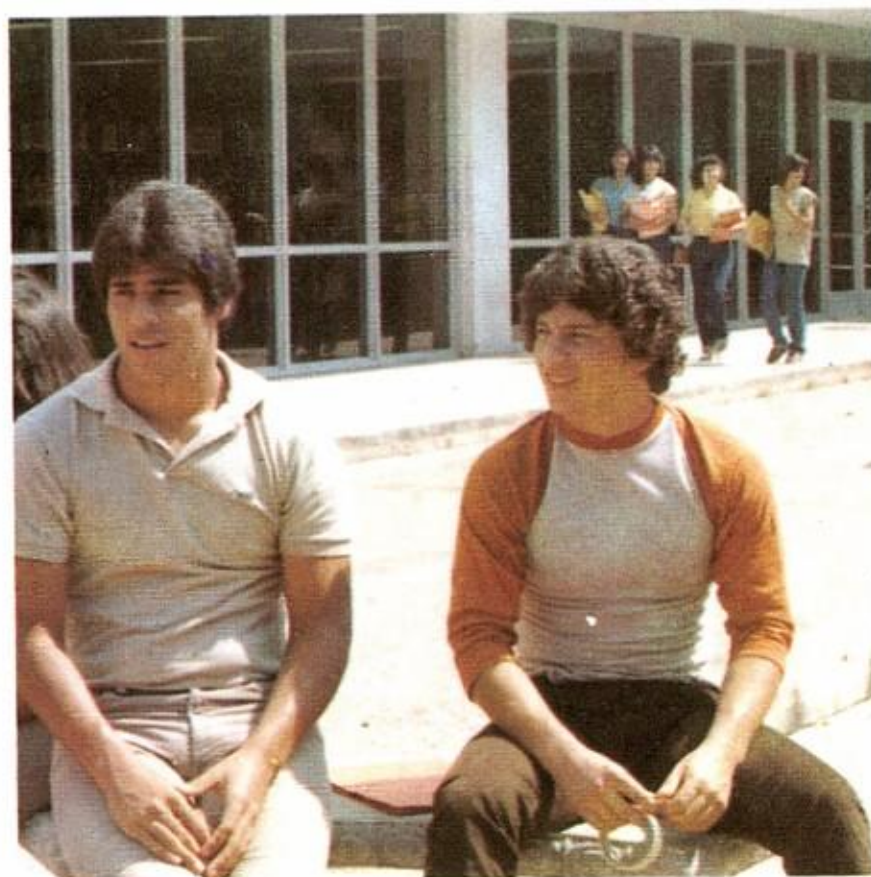

Miroslava Madrigal, Maria Martinez, Debbie Ramirez, Pat Ramos, Elva Gonzalez, and Alma Polanco enjoy spending time together, in the snow.

Mr. Kochler wonders about his incoming students.

Alfred Cedillo and Jose Trevino enjoy sitting on the patio on a sunny day.

Music moves people

Music is the theme for the 1982 yearbook because it is an important factor in our society. Everywhere people go, music can be heard. As we stroll through department stores, relaxing at home and even at school, music sets the mood for the patterns of our lives.

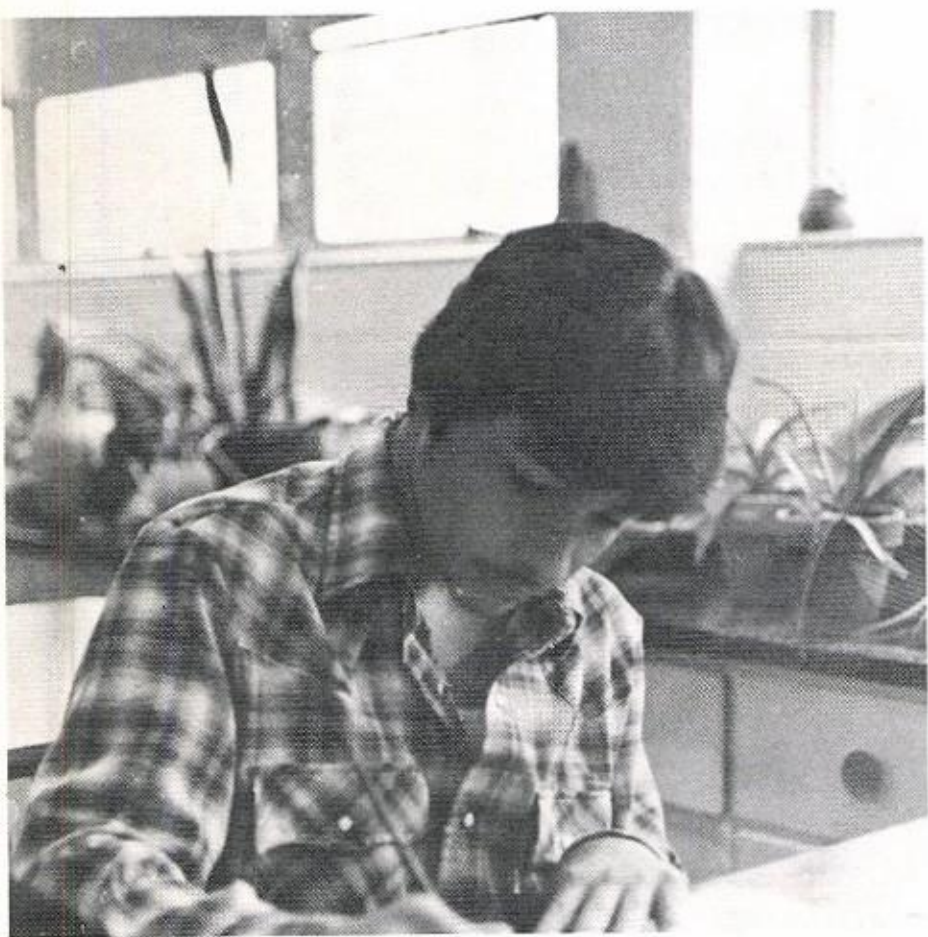

As music provides much variety, people can identify with some type of music either rock-n-roll, country, western, disco or punk rock.

Yes, music holds the keys for future adventures.

Sipriano Olivarri and Dora Von Allmen spend time together in the patio.
Below: Michelle Flores and Ana Moreno share a few friendly words during lunch.

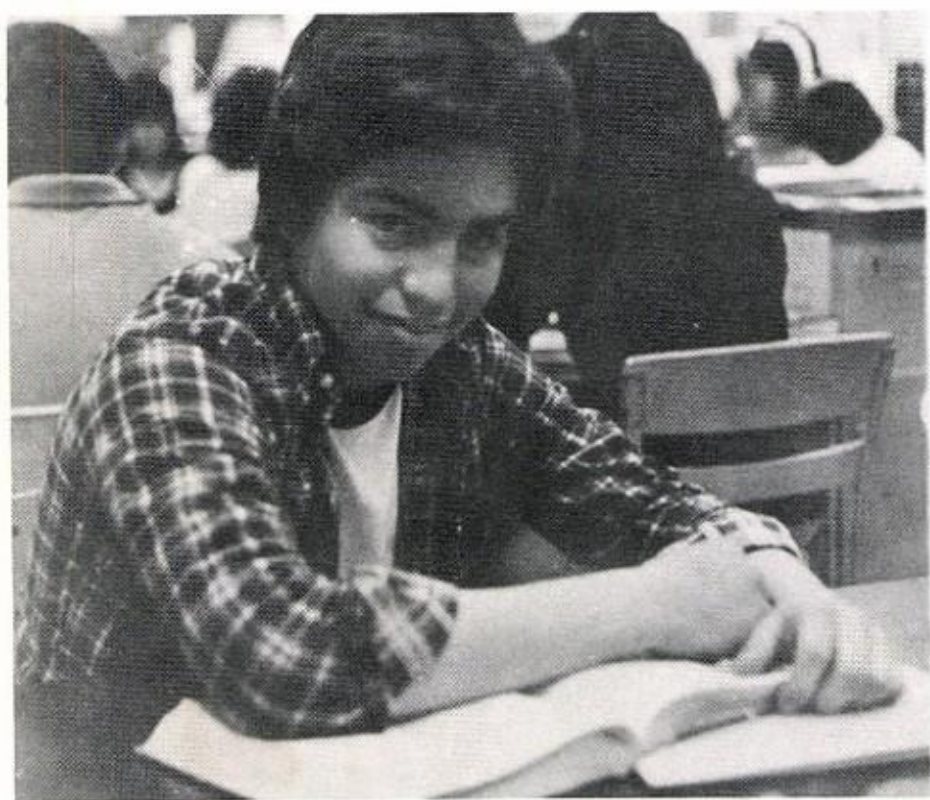

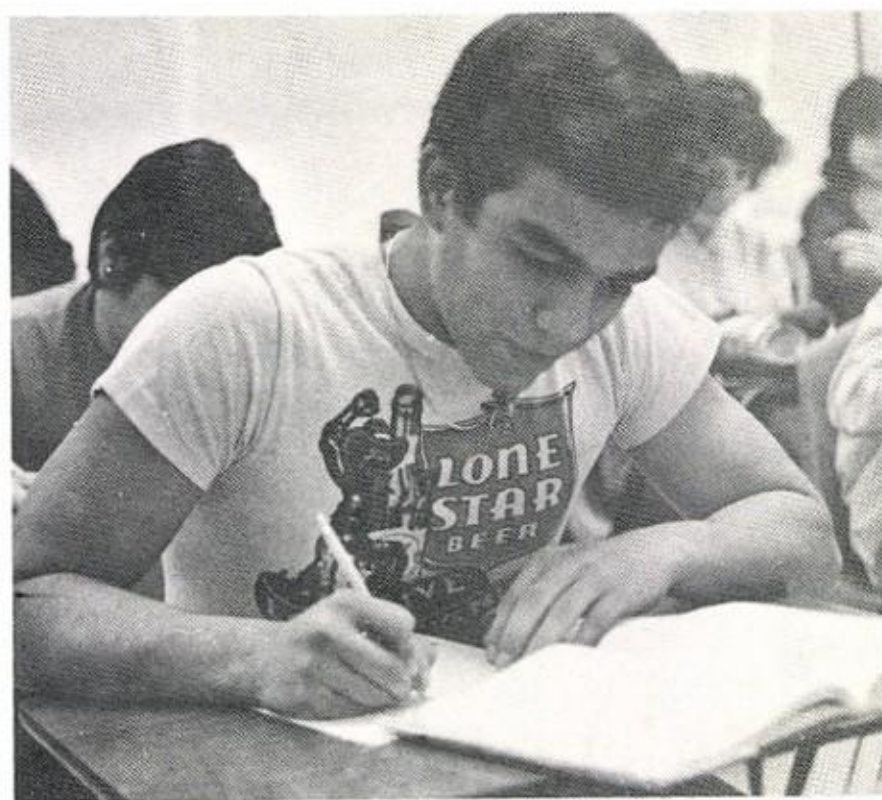

Showing the art of creating a colorful world is Victor Guerra.

Belinda Sanchez and Linda Alicea cannot wait to get to the juicy part of the letter.

Taking a short and pleasant break during a hard assignment is Russell Castillo.

Freddy Lopez shows the importance of completing an assignment on time.

Playing the game, getting better all the time

The results of football games might have not been too pleasing; however, the spirit of the Burbank supporters never ended. The people were cheering the team all the way from the first game to the very last game. It didn't really matter if we won or lost. What counted was the effort the team put in and the support they got.

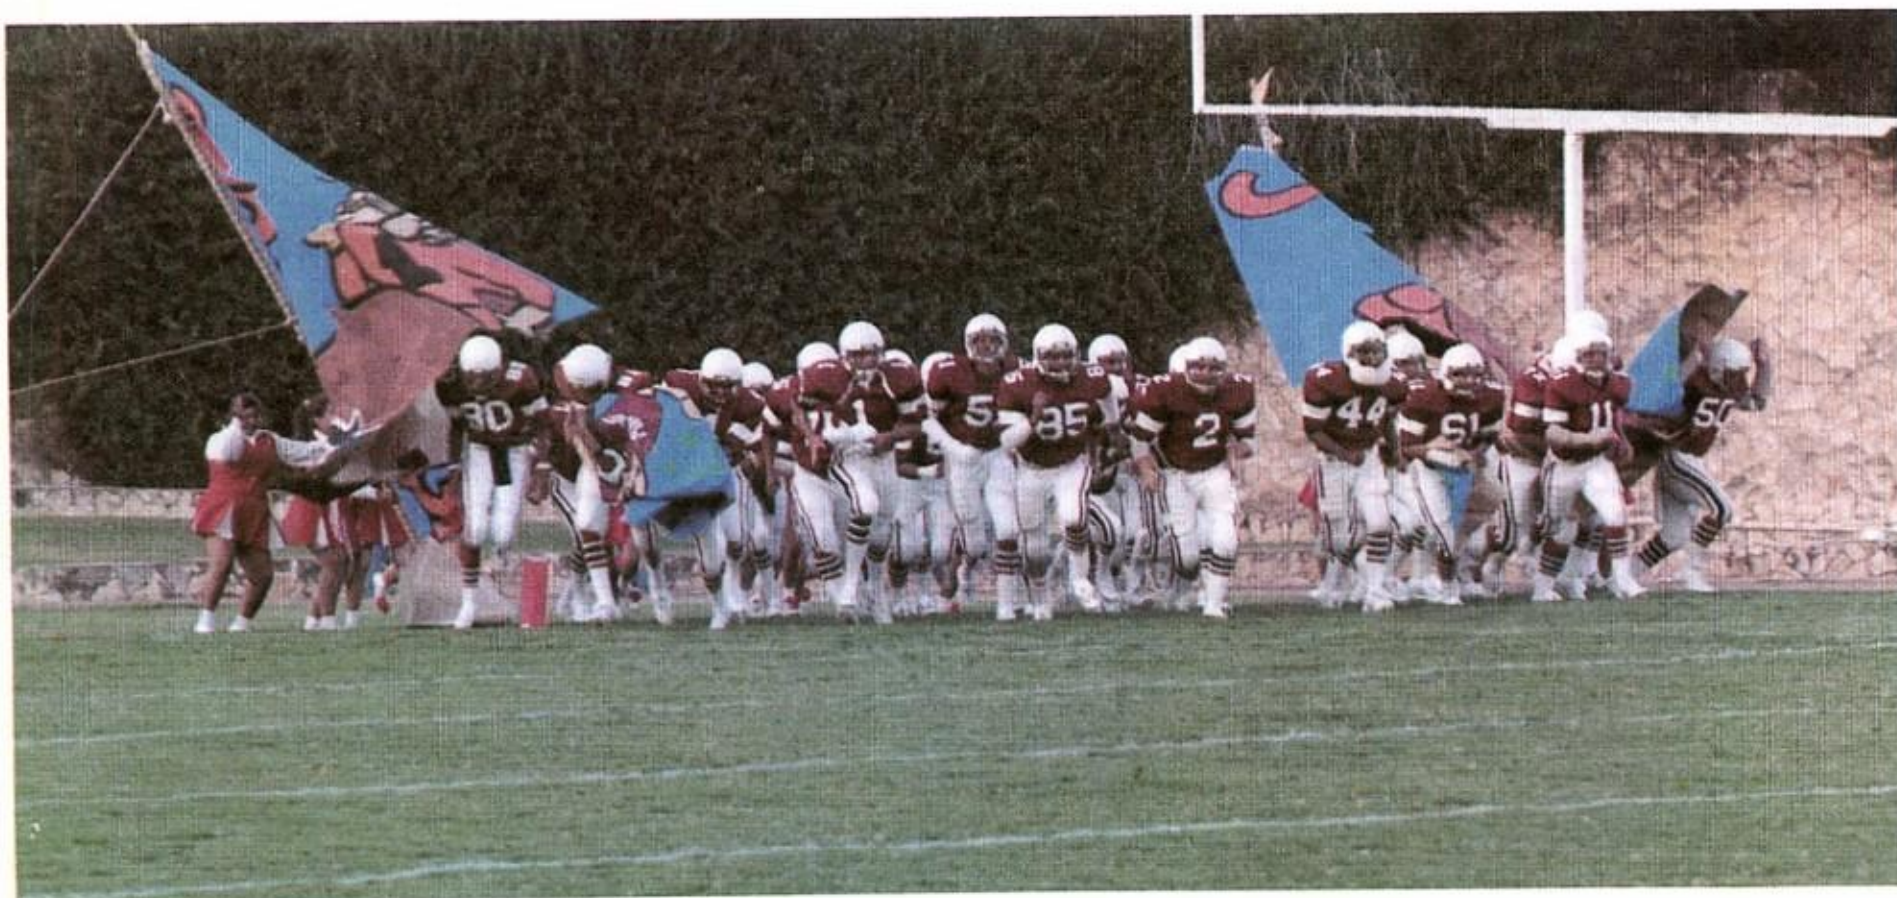

Attending football games is important to Mr. Alvarez.

The end of football season came too soon for Fred Carranza and Mike Riojas.

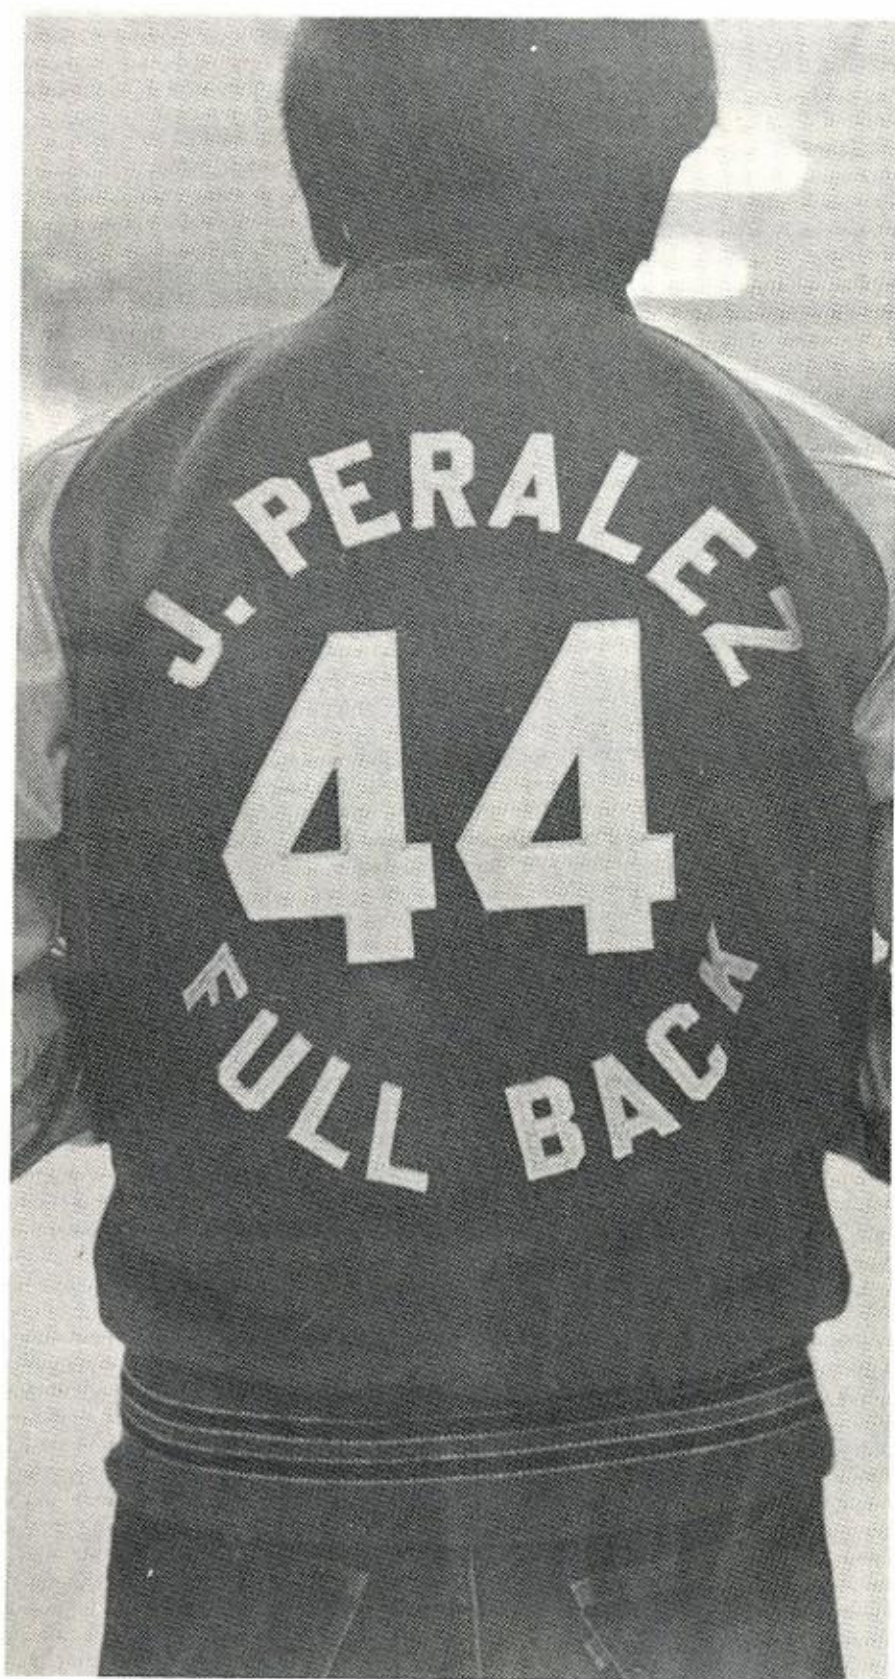

The O. J.'s get ready for the football players to break through.

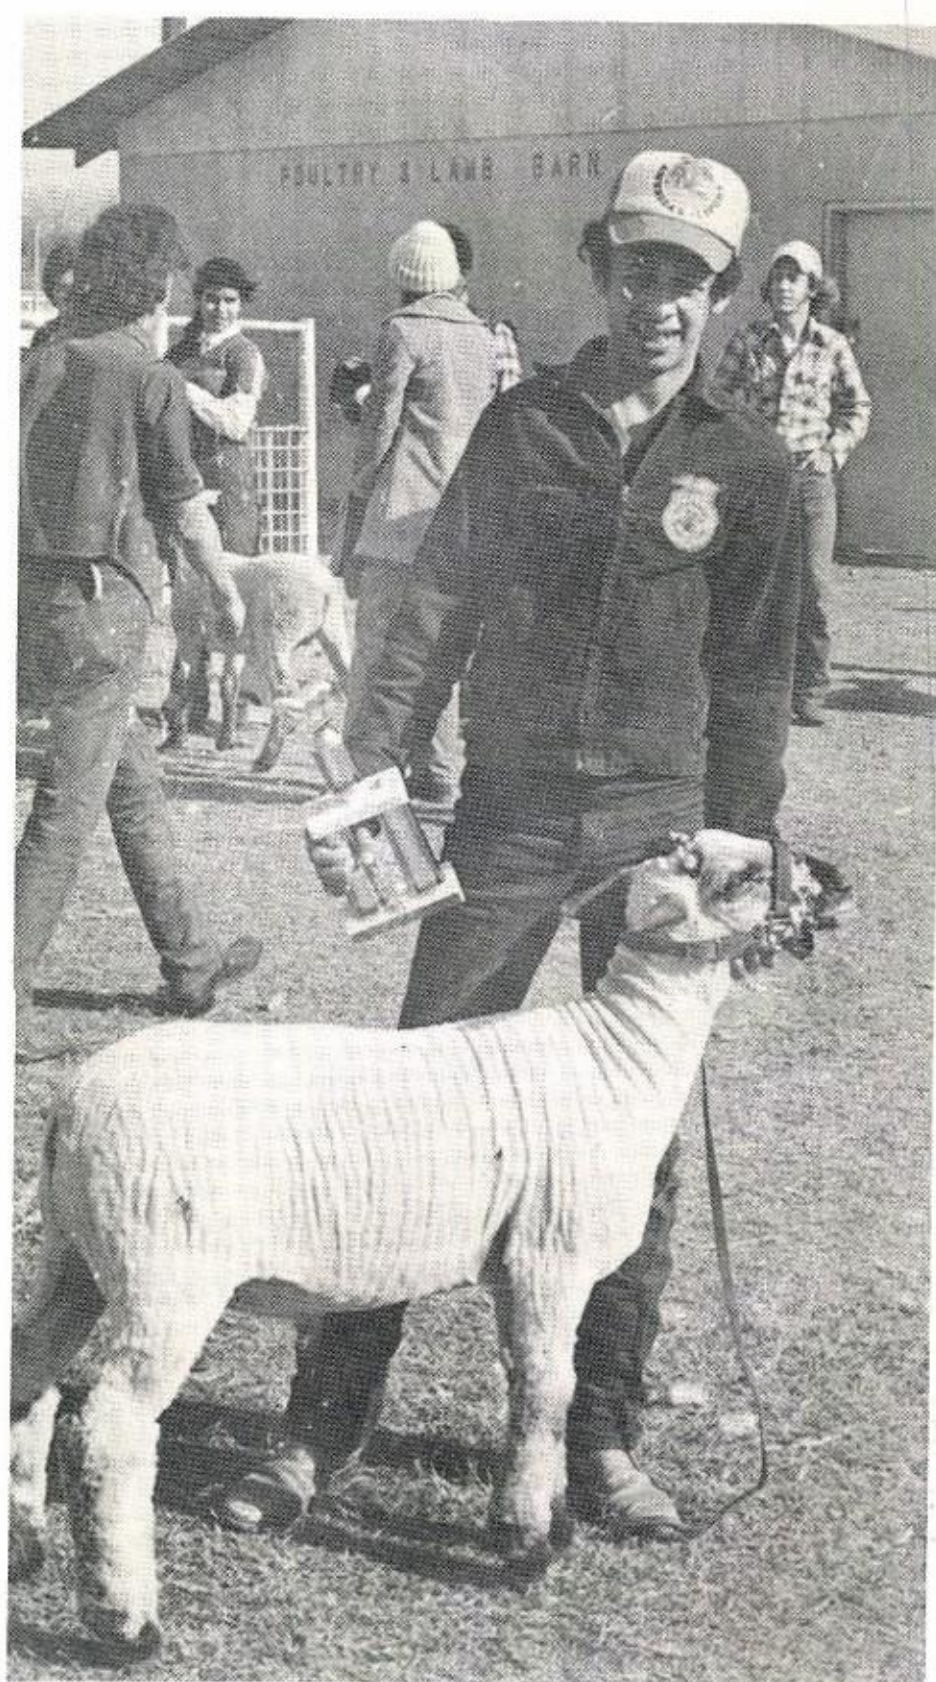

After the break through, the football players ran onto the field ready to go.

From football to farming, all sorts of variety

Jose Salinas shows his award winning lamb.

Frank Gonzalez and Hector Martinez enjoy sitting on the rails after lunch.

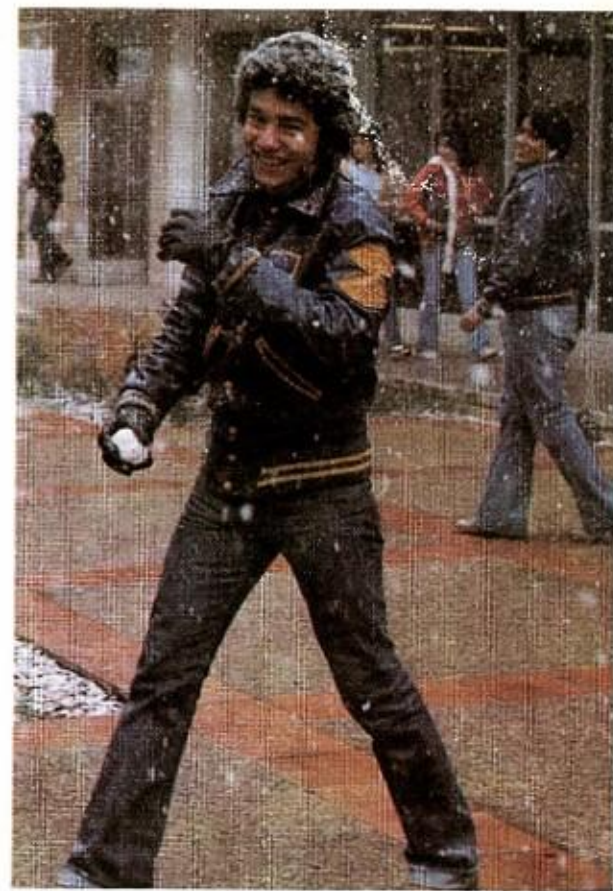

George Herrera is willing to give Steven Padilla a helping hand in times of trouble.

Below: Coach Leal sneaks-up behind David Yanez and pretends to chop his head off.

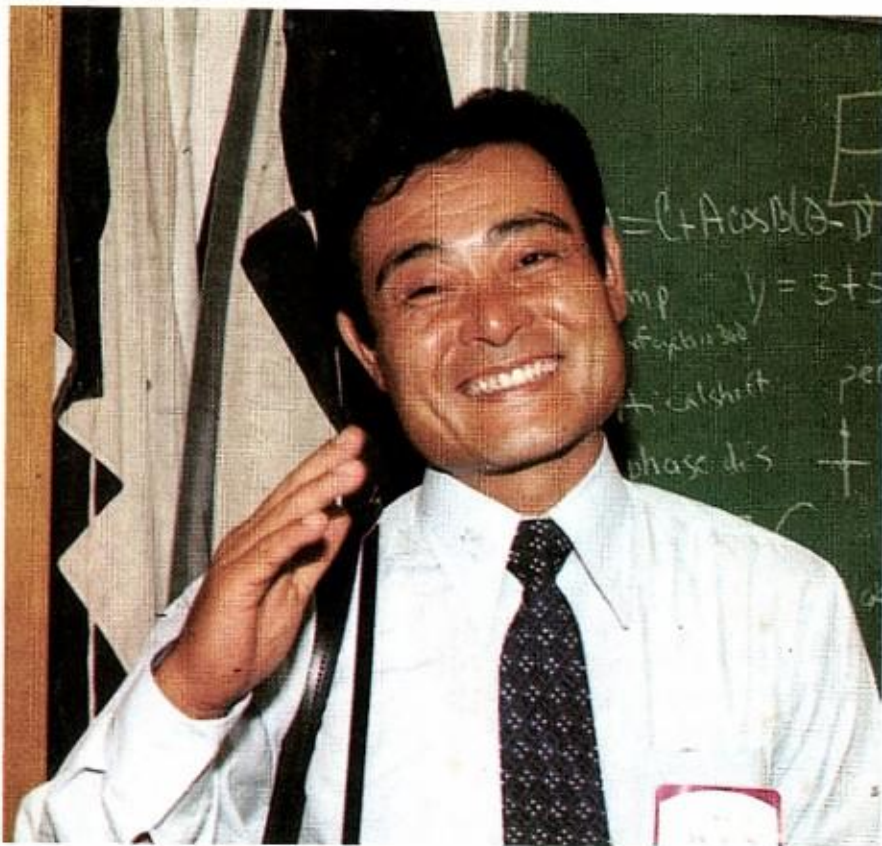

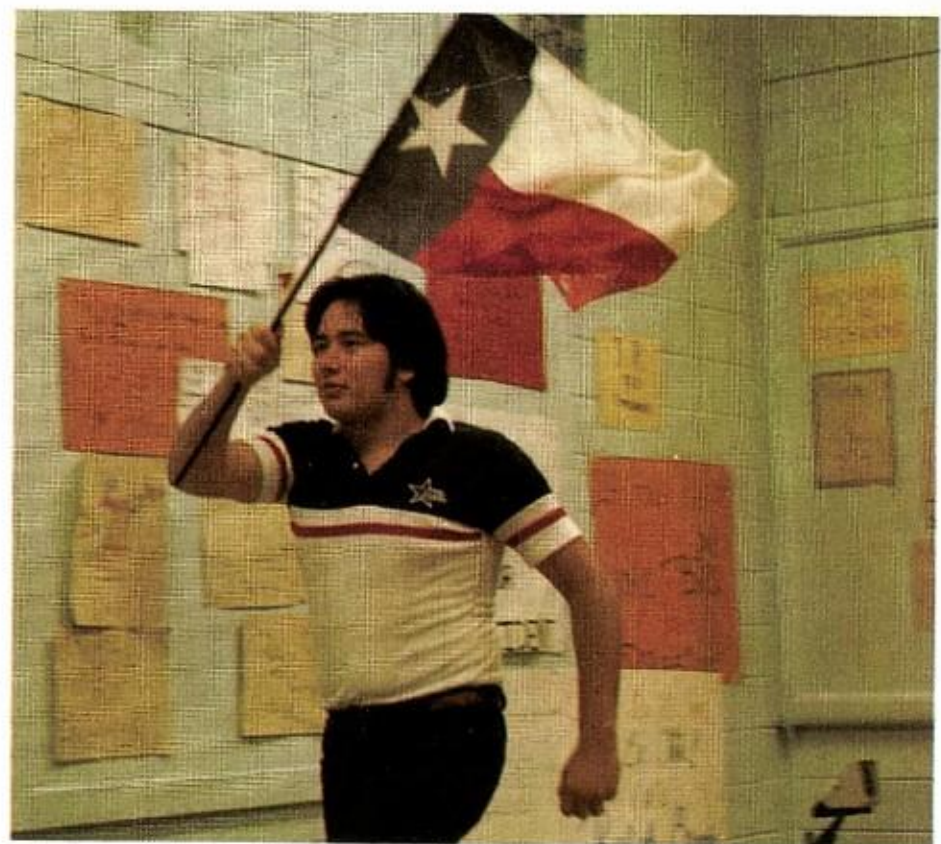

We didn't get a white Christmas; however, we got a white day in January.

Richard Alvarado seeks-out his next victim.

Visitors from Japan brought new faces to the school.

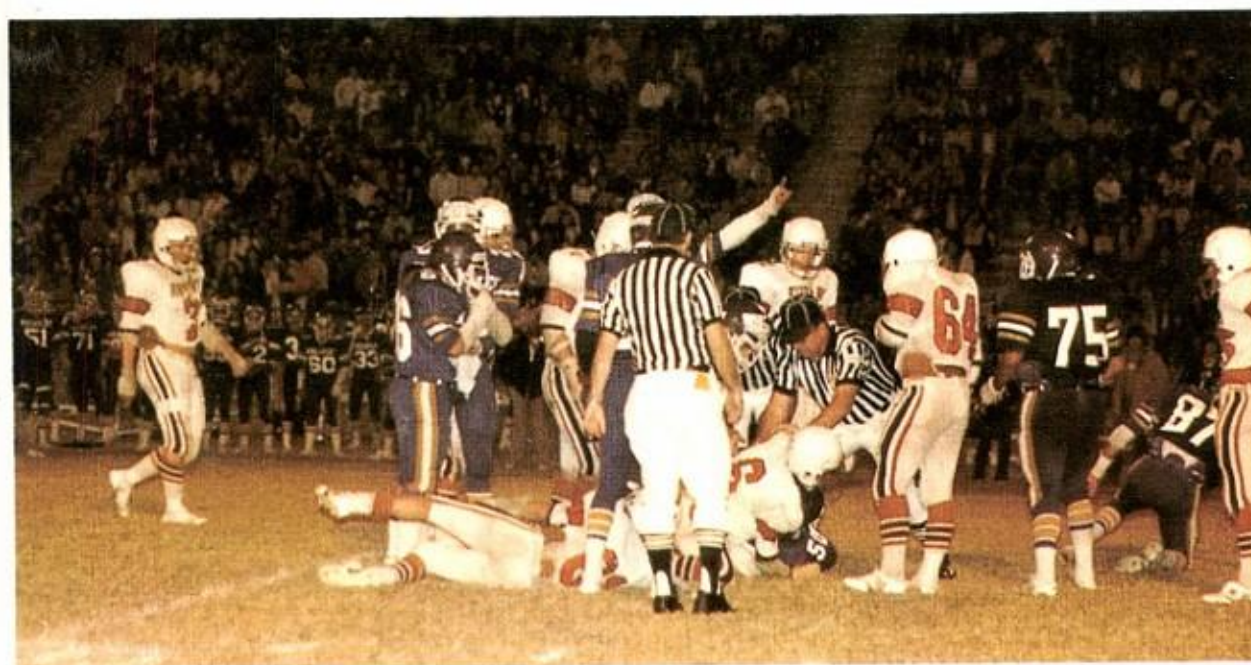

Benny Moore begins his campaign rally in government class.

Just one of the many happenings of the year

The student body backed the football team all the way.

The football players continued to fight until the end.

Color Week was a very exciting week. Everyone seemed to be ready to participate in the many activities.

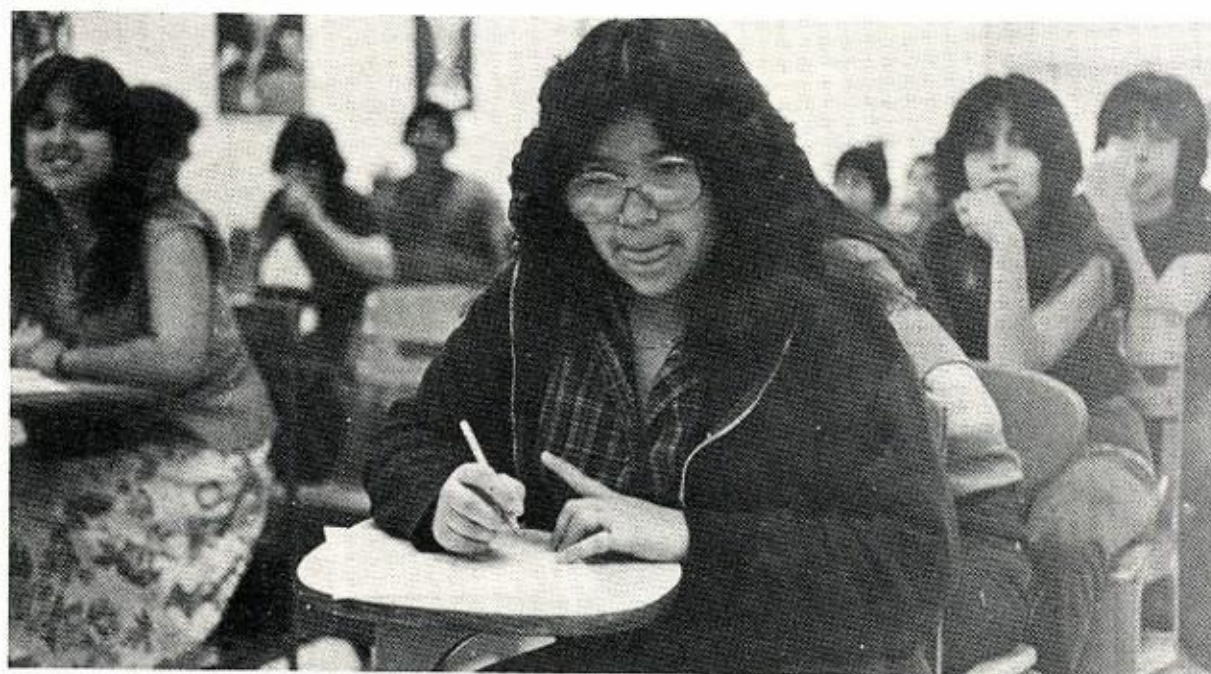

Color Week also brought the Spirit Link Contest, this year the Seniors broke the tradition of Juniors winning the Spirit Link Contest by winning it themselves.

Overall Color Week was a success and the students enjoyed themselves very much.

A concerned look is seen on Jose Velasquez's face.

Making time for many things

A questioning look is displayed by Monica Suarez while completing an assignment.

David Galan proves that M&M's melt in your mouth and not in your hand.

Luther who usually stands in the foyer was stolen during the year.

Putting full concentration on her assignment is Sylvia Arocha.

Mike Moreno shows Greg Hernandez his skill in solving the Rubik's cube.

Just another peaceful, easy feeling

Joe Benites takes a break before completing his work.

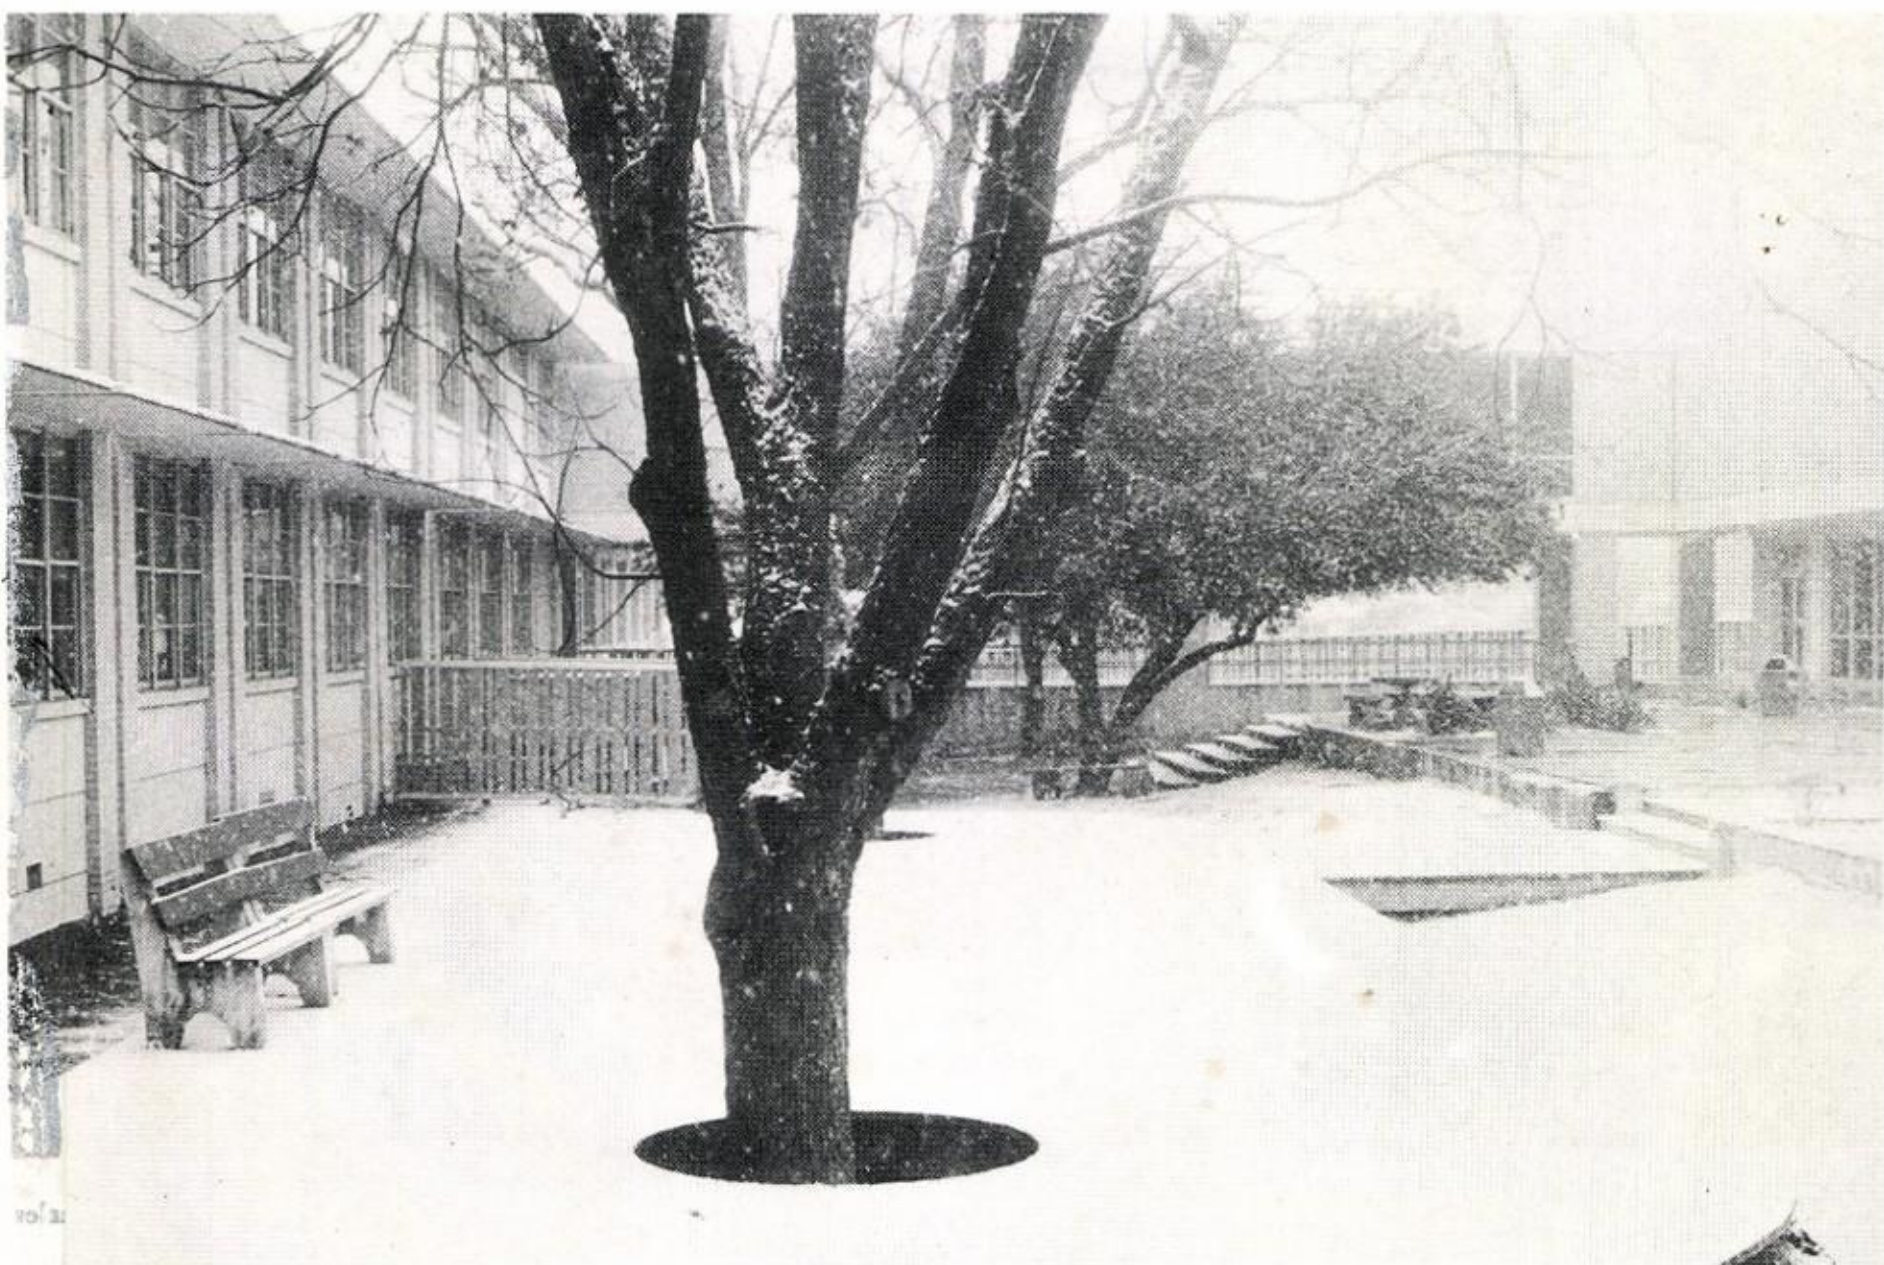

Things were not as cold as they seemed on a snowy day in January.

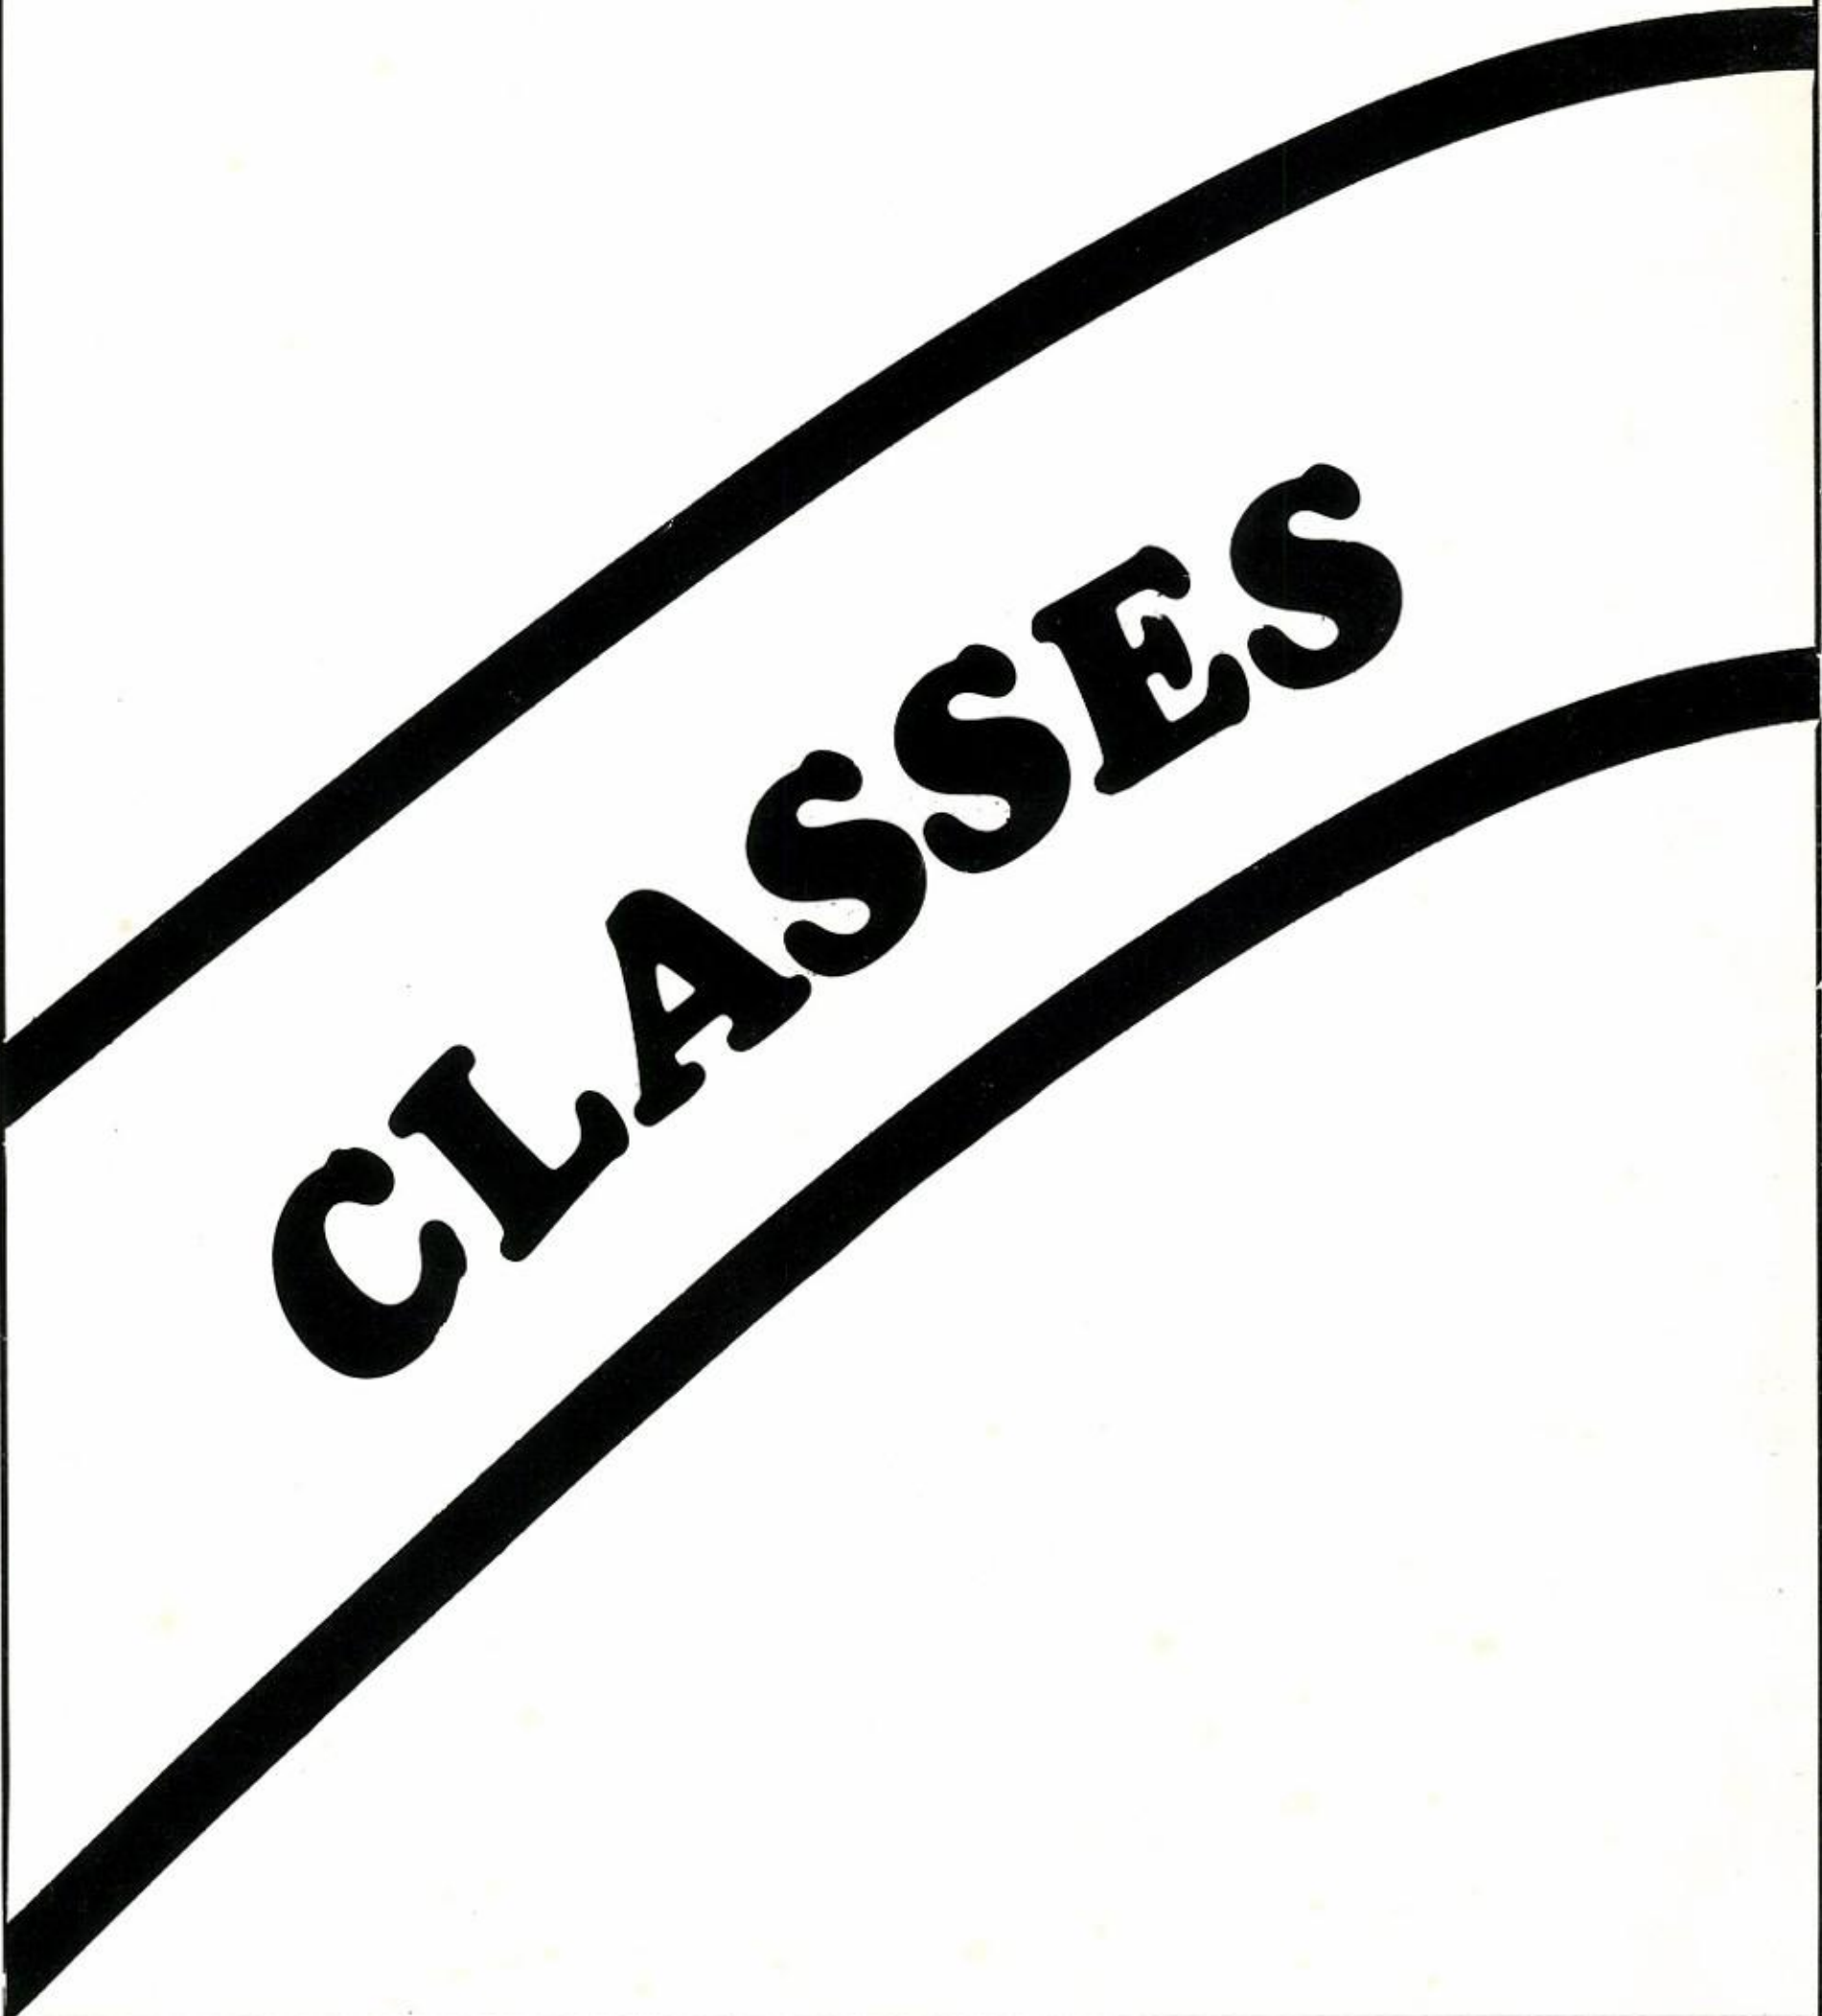

Agriculture students work together to make the program a success.

As F.H.A. Chapter 1 officers, Jacqueline Valdez and Shirley Canal take on new responsibilities.

A graphic design featuring the word "CLASSES" in a bold, black, serif font. The text is positioned between two thick, black, curved lines that sweep from the bottom left towards the top right. The entire composition is enclosed within a double-lined rectangular border.

Sweet memories flashing very quickly by. Reminding me, giving me a reason why. I know that my goal is more than a thought. I'll be there to teach, what I've been taught. Sweet memories, I never thought it would be like this. Reminding me, just how close I came to missing. I know that this is the way for me to go. You'll be there when you know what I know.

SENIORS

After four years of growing, learning, seeing, and experiencing the Class of 82 sets its goal to the ultimate test after graduations, life. Through the years the Class has displayed senses of loyalty, unity, and composure; all of which contributed to the Class of 82's indisputable prosperity.

Though the road to success has posed its share of obstacles, with inherent confidence, the Class put forth its best and attained. All participated through four years of pep rallies, poster parties, dress-up days, and innumerable other activities.

They will collect the memories of the fun times, difficult passages, but most of all, savor the memories of warmth, love, and unity, memories intangible to times oblivious character.

JUNIORS

Officers and representatives lead the way for juniors to follow

The class of "83" was ready to help out and stand by the school in many ways, with the help of their sponsors Mr. Ascension Gonzales and Mrs. Kathy Beierle.

As the junior year began the students showed their spirit by going to many of the poster parties and by participating in the pep rallies. The juniors sponsored the skating parties and attended many school activities. As the middle of the year came most juniors anxiously awaited the Jr., Sr. prom for this was to be the first prom for many of the students.

The class of "83" was also excited about ordering their senior ring and looking forward to the ring ceremony. As the closing of the year came the juniors began to think of the upcoming senior year.

SOPHOMORES

Sophomores search for a better tomorrow

Freshmen year was a year filled with many surprises. Now in the sophomore year and mostly everyone has begun to sink into the group and become a great part of the school.

Sophomores got over the hump of the first year in high school, and began to participate in many more activities. They were ready to show that Bulldog Spirit all year long. They were led by their sponsors Mr. Sylvester Martinez and Miss Mayra Hernandez to make the sophomore year for the class of 84 a successful one.

Uniting for new goals

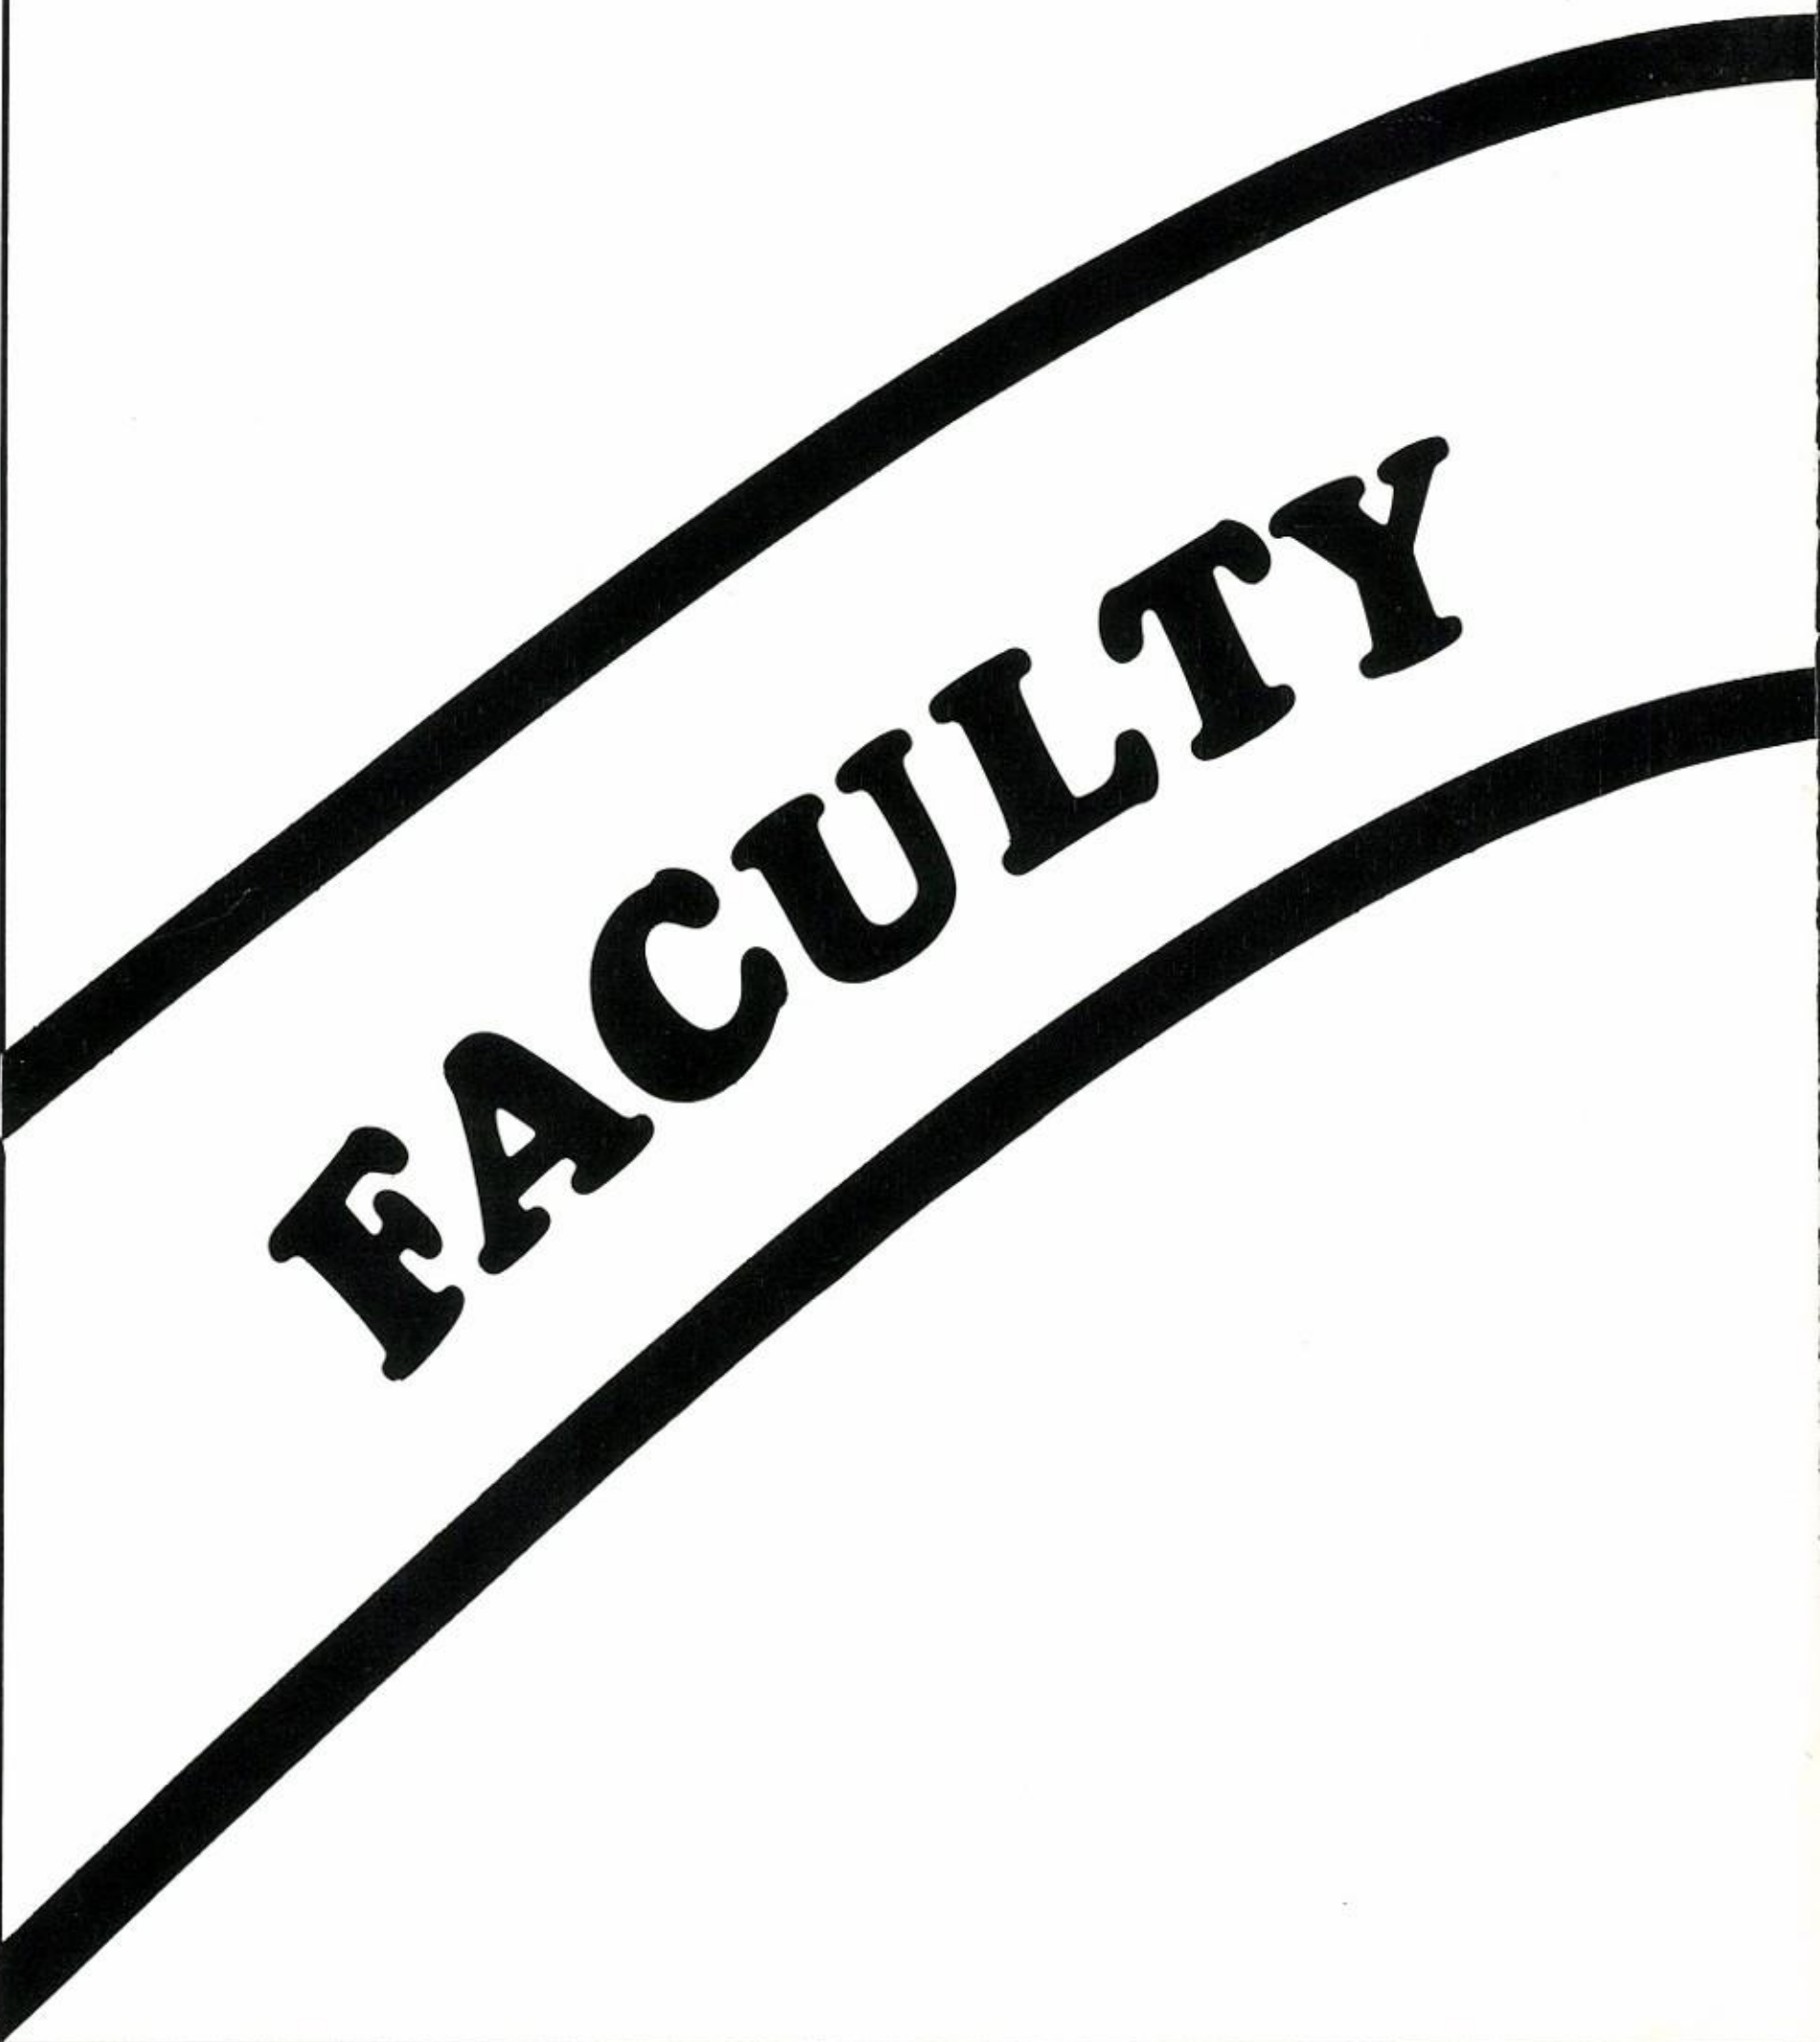

Nobody said being a freshman was going to be easy, but the Freshman class of '85 proved it wasn't too big of a task to overcome. The class of '85' was led by very responsible officers and their two sponsors Ms. Dalena Nickson and Ms. Dorothy Keene. The class united together and participated in activities throughout the year. The freshmen also showed their spirit at pep-rallies and games. Together they discovered the ups and downs of high school life, and together they will travel to make their years here at Burbank very memorable.

A large, bold, black serif font word "FACULTY" is centered between two thick, black, curved lines that sweep from the bottom left towards the top right. The entire graphic is enclosed within a double-line rectangular border.

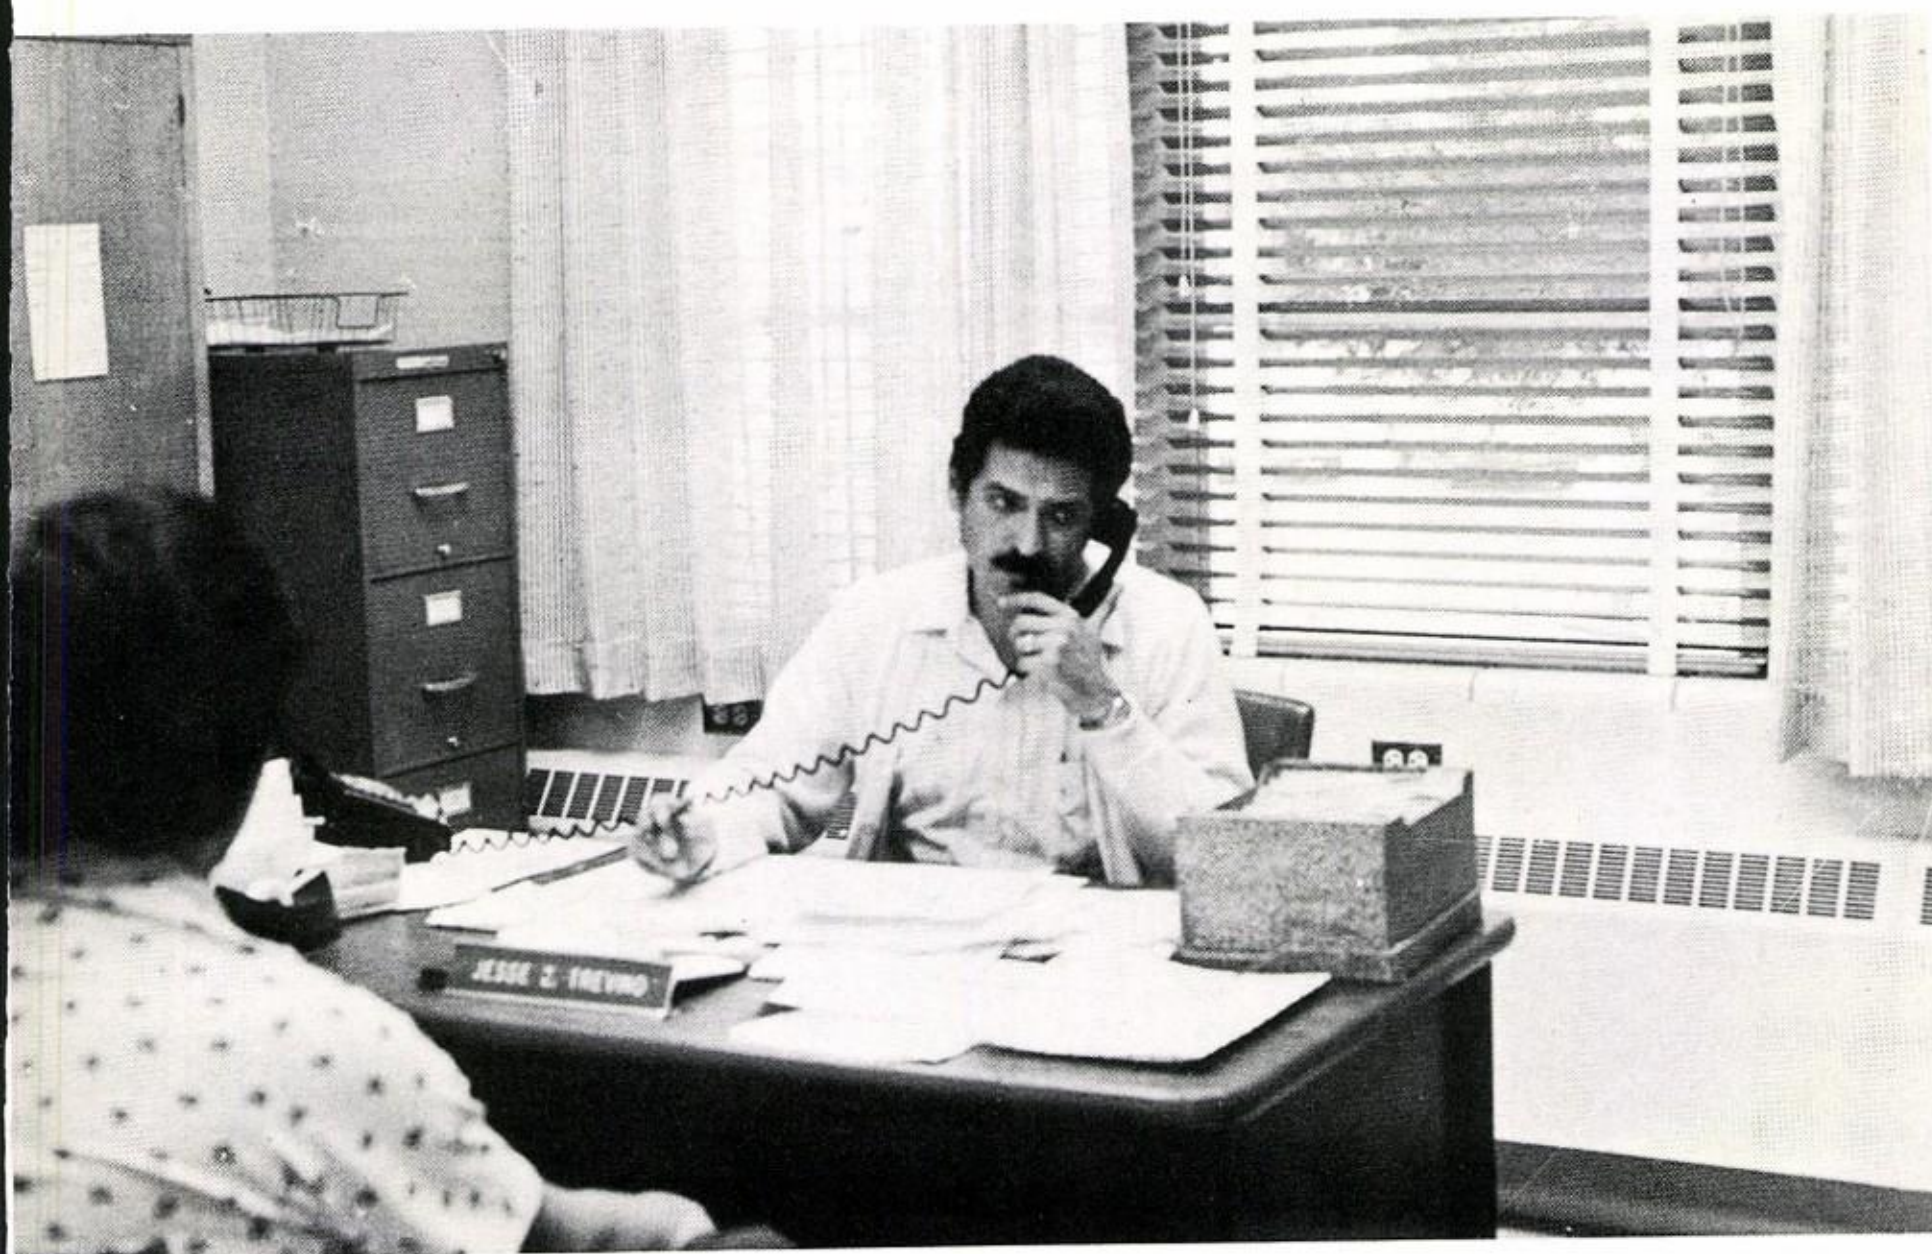

It's not far down to paradise, at least it's not for me. And if the wind is right you can sail away and find tranquility. The canvas can do miracles just you wait and see, believe me.

Sailing, takes me away to where I've always heard it could be, just a dream and the wind to carry me and soon I will be free.

It's not far back to sanity, at least it's not for me. And if the wind is right you can sail away and find serenity. The canvas can do miracles just you wait and see, believe me.

Today's education—a growing experience

As long as man has lived, the ability to learn and apply knowledge has existed. Today is no exception. With the advancement of the space program and the introduction of some highly technological concepts, we as a new generation to this earth, welcome the teaching of the faculty of Luther Burbank High School. A group dedicated to teaching what they have learned to use so that we may apply this new knowledge to our future world. Their work, we must understand, is as important as any other job in the world. Though much time and money is spent to prepare for their work, a teacher cannot expect to earn a high salary. Some teachers serve as club sponsors and yet still have the time and energy to help us by counseling during rough times. Their work is immeasurable. A special dedication that we, as a student body, must recognize with appreciation. Their leadership, we must not take for granted. We are the adults of tomorrow from the education of today.

The Administration plays a large part in helping the students prepare for their future. Students must learn from these people whose teachings are their way of life. They teach students to share information as well as welcome it, through this process we develop respect and friendship for one another.

SPORTS

Feels like we're running out of time. Every day it seems much harder, telling right from wrong. You got to read between the lines. Don't get discouraged, don't be afraid, we can make it through another day, make it worth the price we pay. Fight the good fight every moment, every minute, every day. Fight the good fight every moment, it's your only way.

Nothing is easy. Nothing good is free. But I can tell you where to start. Take a look inside your heart. There's an answer in your heart.

Once again, Team faces Hard season

Despite the long hours of practice and determination, the varsity football team faced another hard season with a 0-9-1 season. Though a win failed to turn up this year, the aggression and determination of the players showed through many times during the year.

Battling Bulldogs gather together to discuss their next strategic play.

Senior Alex Porter defies John Jay defense and gains yardage for a first down.

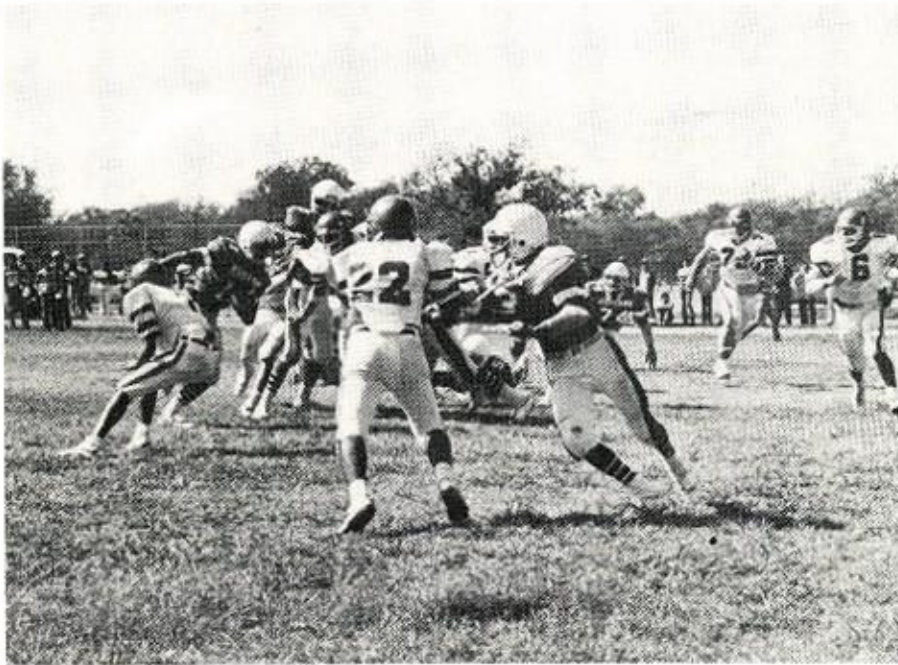

Preventing a first down proved challenging for the Bulldog defense. Below — Bulldog offense prepares to break through opposing team's line for extra yards.

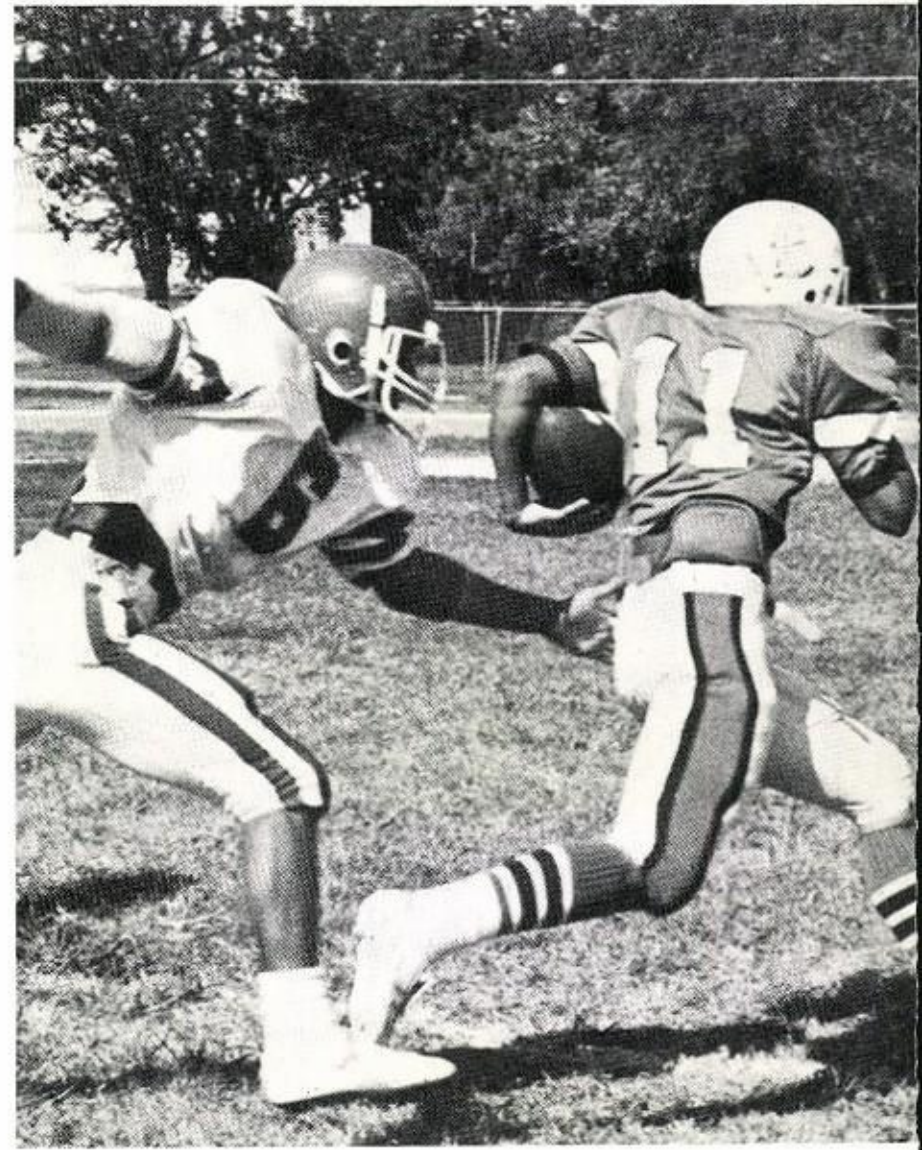

J.V. places second in district

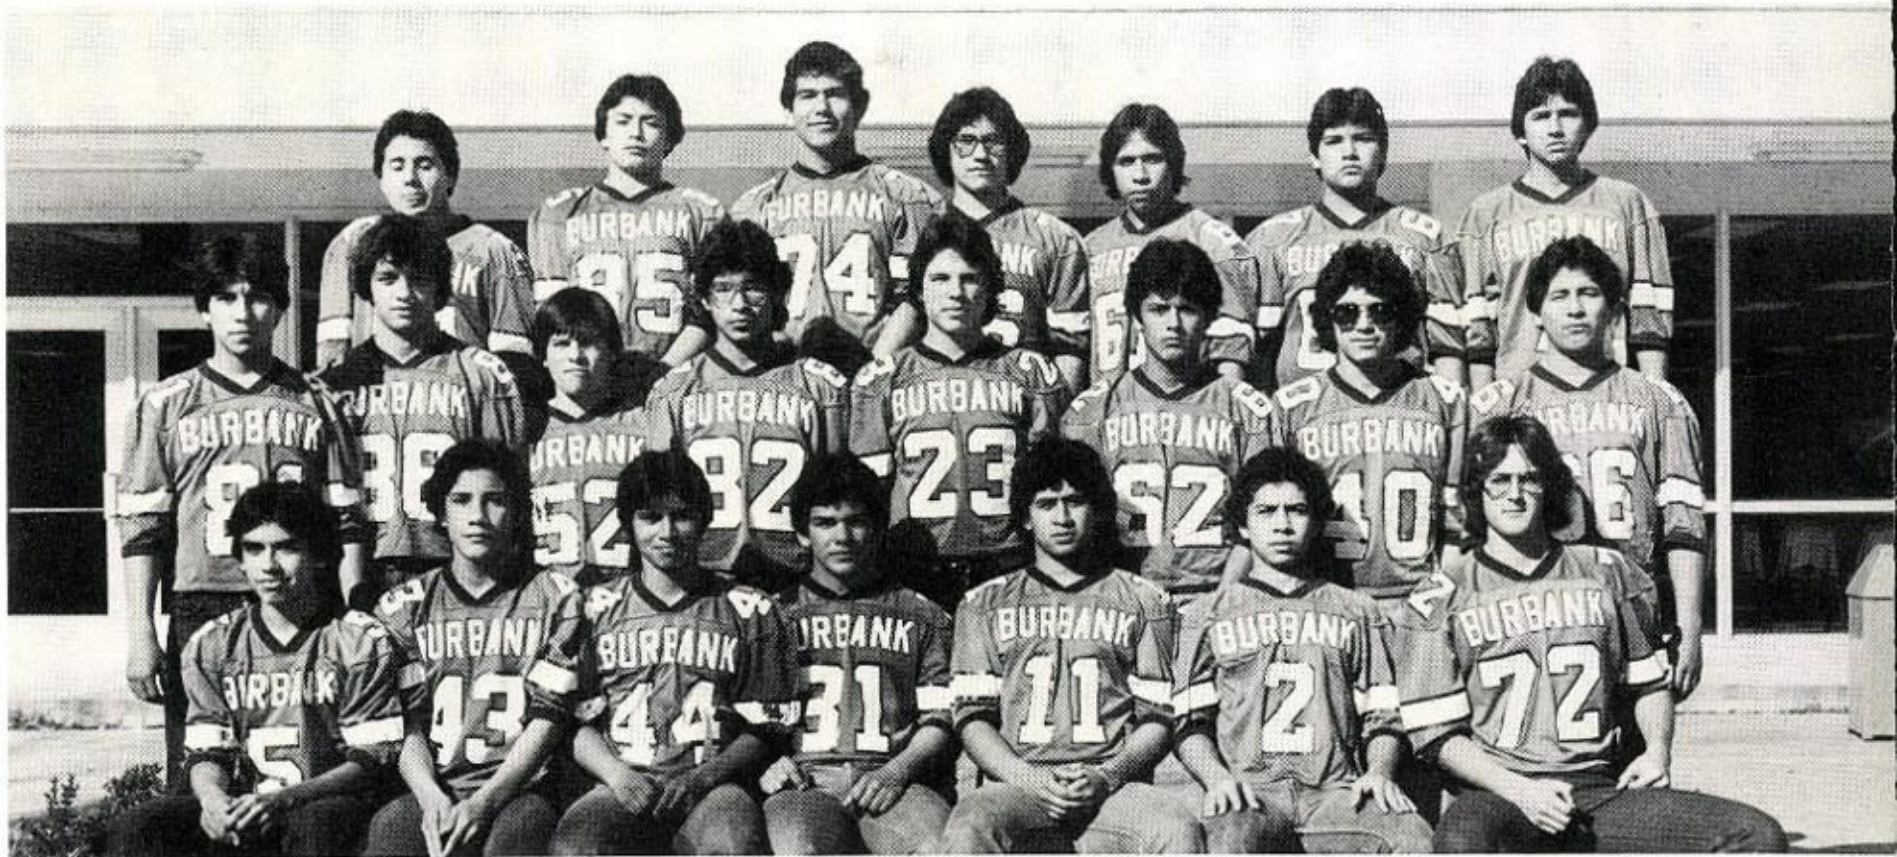

The Junior Varsity football team proved that hard work and long hours of practice pay off. They placed second in district with an excellent record of 8 and 2. The team was led to victory by the excellent coaching of Coach Bohach, Coach Deleon, and Coach Galvan.

Bulldogs fight hard for yardage.

Paul Galindo runs toward victory.

Teammates cooperate; place 1st in district

Playing together and having confidence in one another are two key factors in having a successful team. The Bulldog freshman football players proved that this was true by taking first place in District 31-A with a perfect record of 10 wins and 0 losses. The team was led to victory by Coach Canales, Coach Reyes, and Coach Rodriguez.

Freshman fight hard to regain possession of the ball.

Bulldogs easily hold opposing team from scoring a touchdown.

Varsity netters stick together to the last volley

The Varsity Volleyball team came through their season with 4 wins and 10 losses. A lot of pride, sweat and a feeling of accomplishment were shown by the players.

The team put in long hours of practice after school going over drills and learning how to play as a team.

This year's varsity squad consisted of 14 Seniors, 1 Junior, 2 Sophomores, and 2 Freshmen. Vivian Corona made first team All-District and Connie Comacho made Honorable Mention All-District. Ms. Molinda Scoggins guided the team throughout their season.

Mechanics get their gears in shape

One of the best learning experiences that a student can get is Vocational Auto Mechanics course here at Burbank.

Some of the skills have enabled Andy Lopez, Harry Gonzales, Roy Martinez, and Leroy Sanchez to place 1st in state and Richard Ibanez, Ozzie Chappa and Marty Sanchez to place 2nd in state.

It provides the students with the opportunity to develop needed skills which they must possess in order to service and repair all automobiles. It provides an excellent opportunity for students, through classroom and shop experiences to use hand tools and power tools.

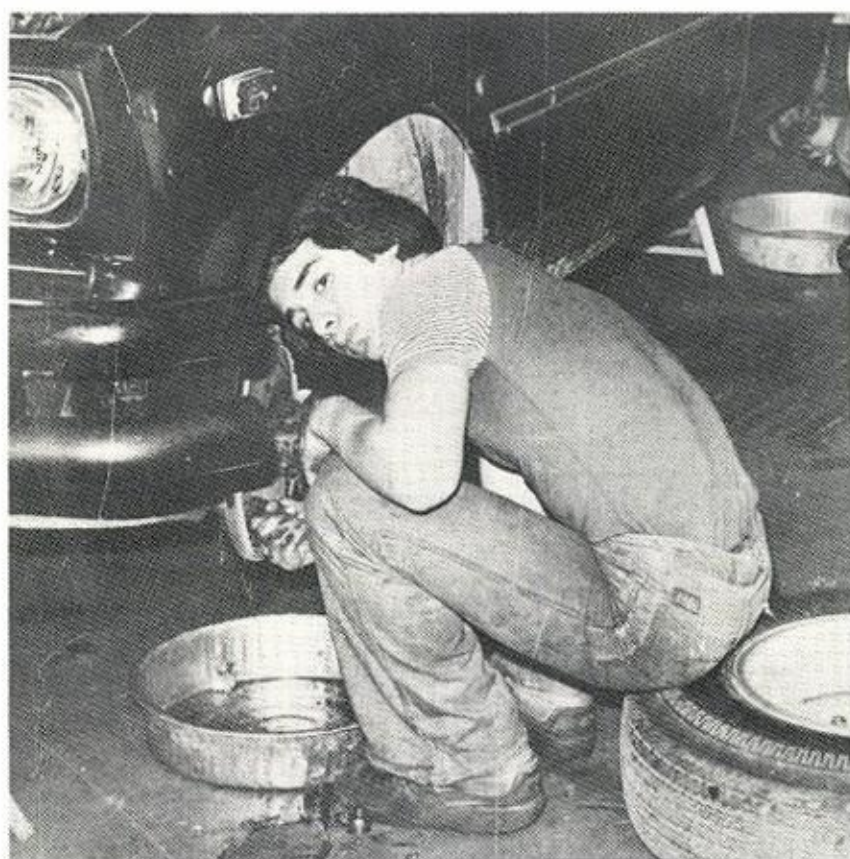

The student who wants to start a mechanic's career as well as those individuals who just want to know a little more about their automobile have the opportunity to save money on repairs in the future.

Students help provide for themselves

CVAE co-op is designed to provide high school students with valuable training experience in jobs under actual working conditions. It is a relationship between employers and public schools. Employers hire students to work during the school day and also provide them with on the job training.

CVAE CO-OP members display their knowledge by informing the student body during vocational week.

Learning skills, FFA way

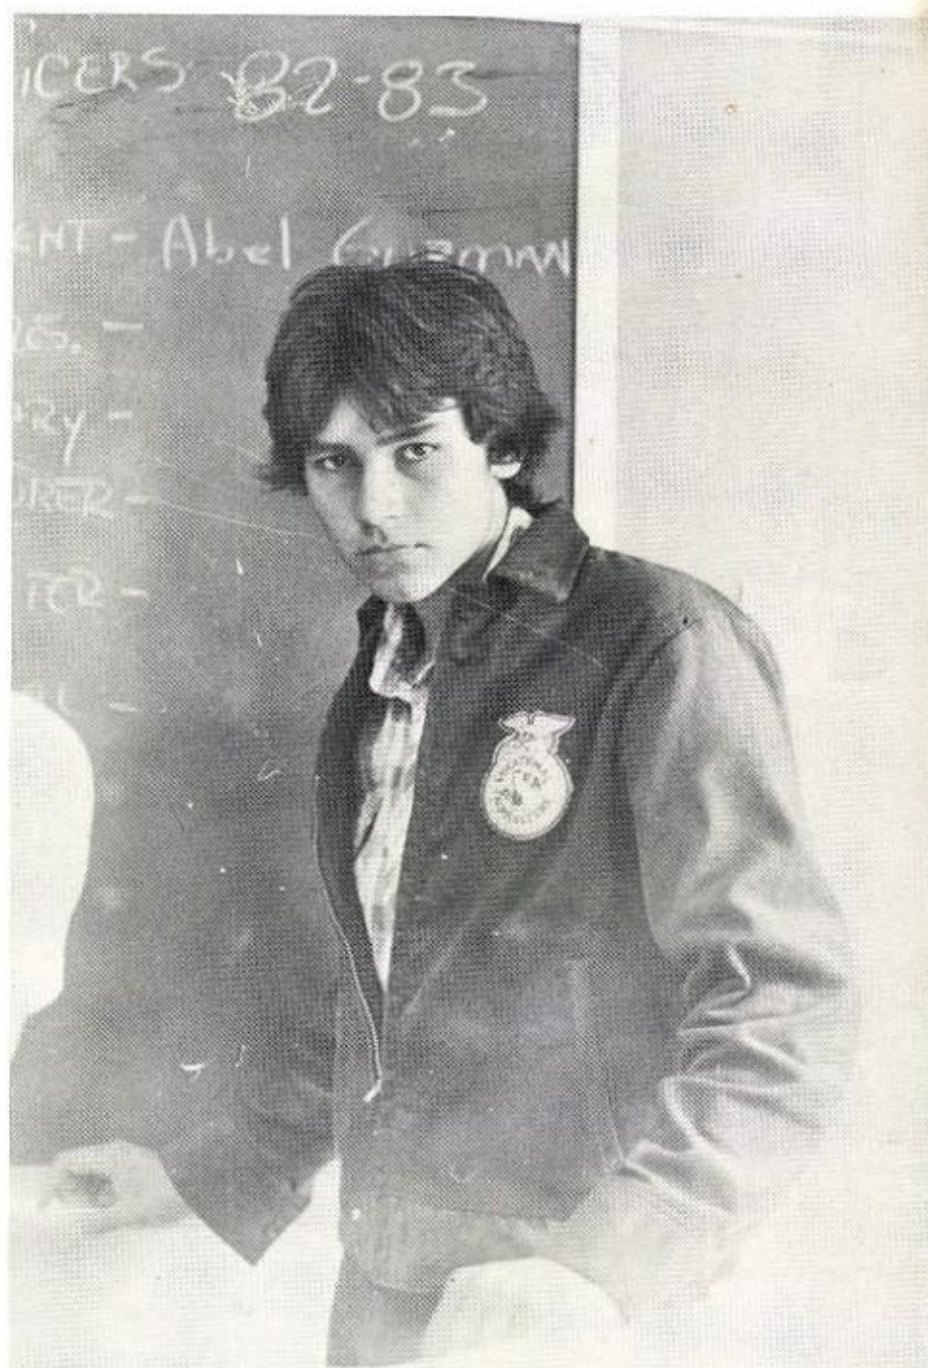

Raising cattle and growing vegetables are not the only skills of Future Farmers of America. Students are accustomed to learning various methods of agriculture.

The FFA members are active in several activities and they host their annual initiation and are supported by a Booster club inclusive of parents and teachers.

They are also active in the Rodeo held in February.

FFA officers help to elect new officers for 1982-83.

Woodworkers at work

Mill and Cabinet is a course that helps students who want to develop their creative skills or who want to be craftsmen in a manufacturing process. This course is for students who like to use their hands in finishing a woodwork product. One of the main reasons why students like to do wood products is because once it is completed the person can look over it and admire it because they themselves made it with their own hands.

Athletic honor roll

The B club consists of all students who have earned the letter "B" by playing any varsity sport. This organization isn't limited to only boys sports but to all girls sports as well. Becoming a B club member takes a lot of time and dedication to the sport he or she plays.

This year the B club sponsored the intramural basketball and co-sponsored the softball tournaments.

Lee Medina, placed 3th in district and 4th in regionals for track. He also played in the North & South football game.

Connie Camacho, played in the North & South volleyball game and got honorable mention in district.

Barbara Crawford received the "Spirit of Victory" scholarship.

Ben Ornelas received the weight lifting gold medal.

Joey Vasquez was cap. of the 1981-82 var. basketball team 5th leader scorer in city, and Honorable mention.

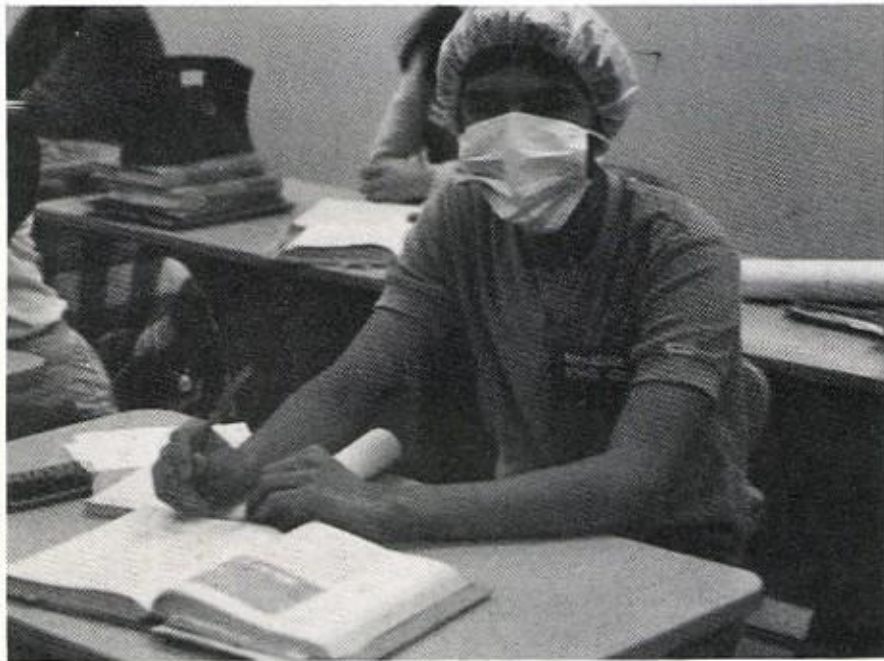

Mike Scott placed 9th in the weight lifting competition, and placed 2nd in the discus.

Future medics serve in various ways

Studying medicine takes a lot of years of hard work, and once you have made up your mind to pursue a medical career, you must have a serious attitude. The Para-Medical Science Club helps students pursue their career and furthers them by taking them on field trips, providing guest speakers and informative meetings.

Eight students to regionals

UIL competition is much like sports competition, only the best in a certain category can compete. There is also a lot of practicing involved on the students' part to prepare for UIL competition.

Mrs. Ruth Linder is the UIL director for Burbank. This year students competed in UIL competition for Debates, Journalism, Calculator, Number Sense, Ready Writing, Science, Shorthand, Spelling, Plain Writing, Typewriting, and the One Act Play.

The competition was held at Del Mar College in the coastal city of Corpus Christi.

Randell Espinoza walks away after receiving his award.

Mrs. Linder and Mr. Mueller prepare certificates in order to get the ceremony on its way.

Laura Castillo, Terry Velasquez, Alma Polanco, and Maria Jenson take a break after the competition.

Drama students won Zone competition with the one act play "Once Upon A Mattress". Lorena Marquez was part of the cast.

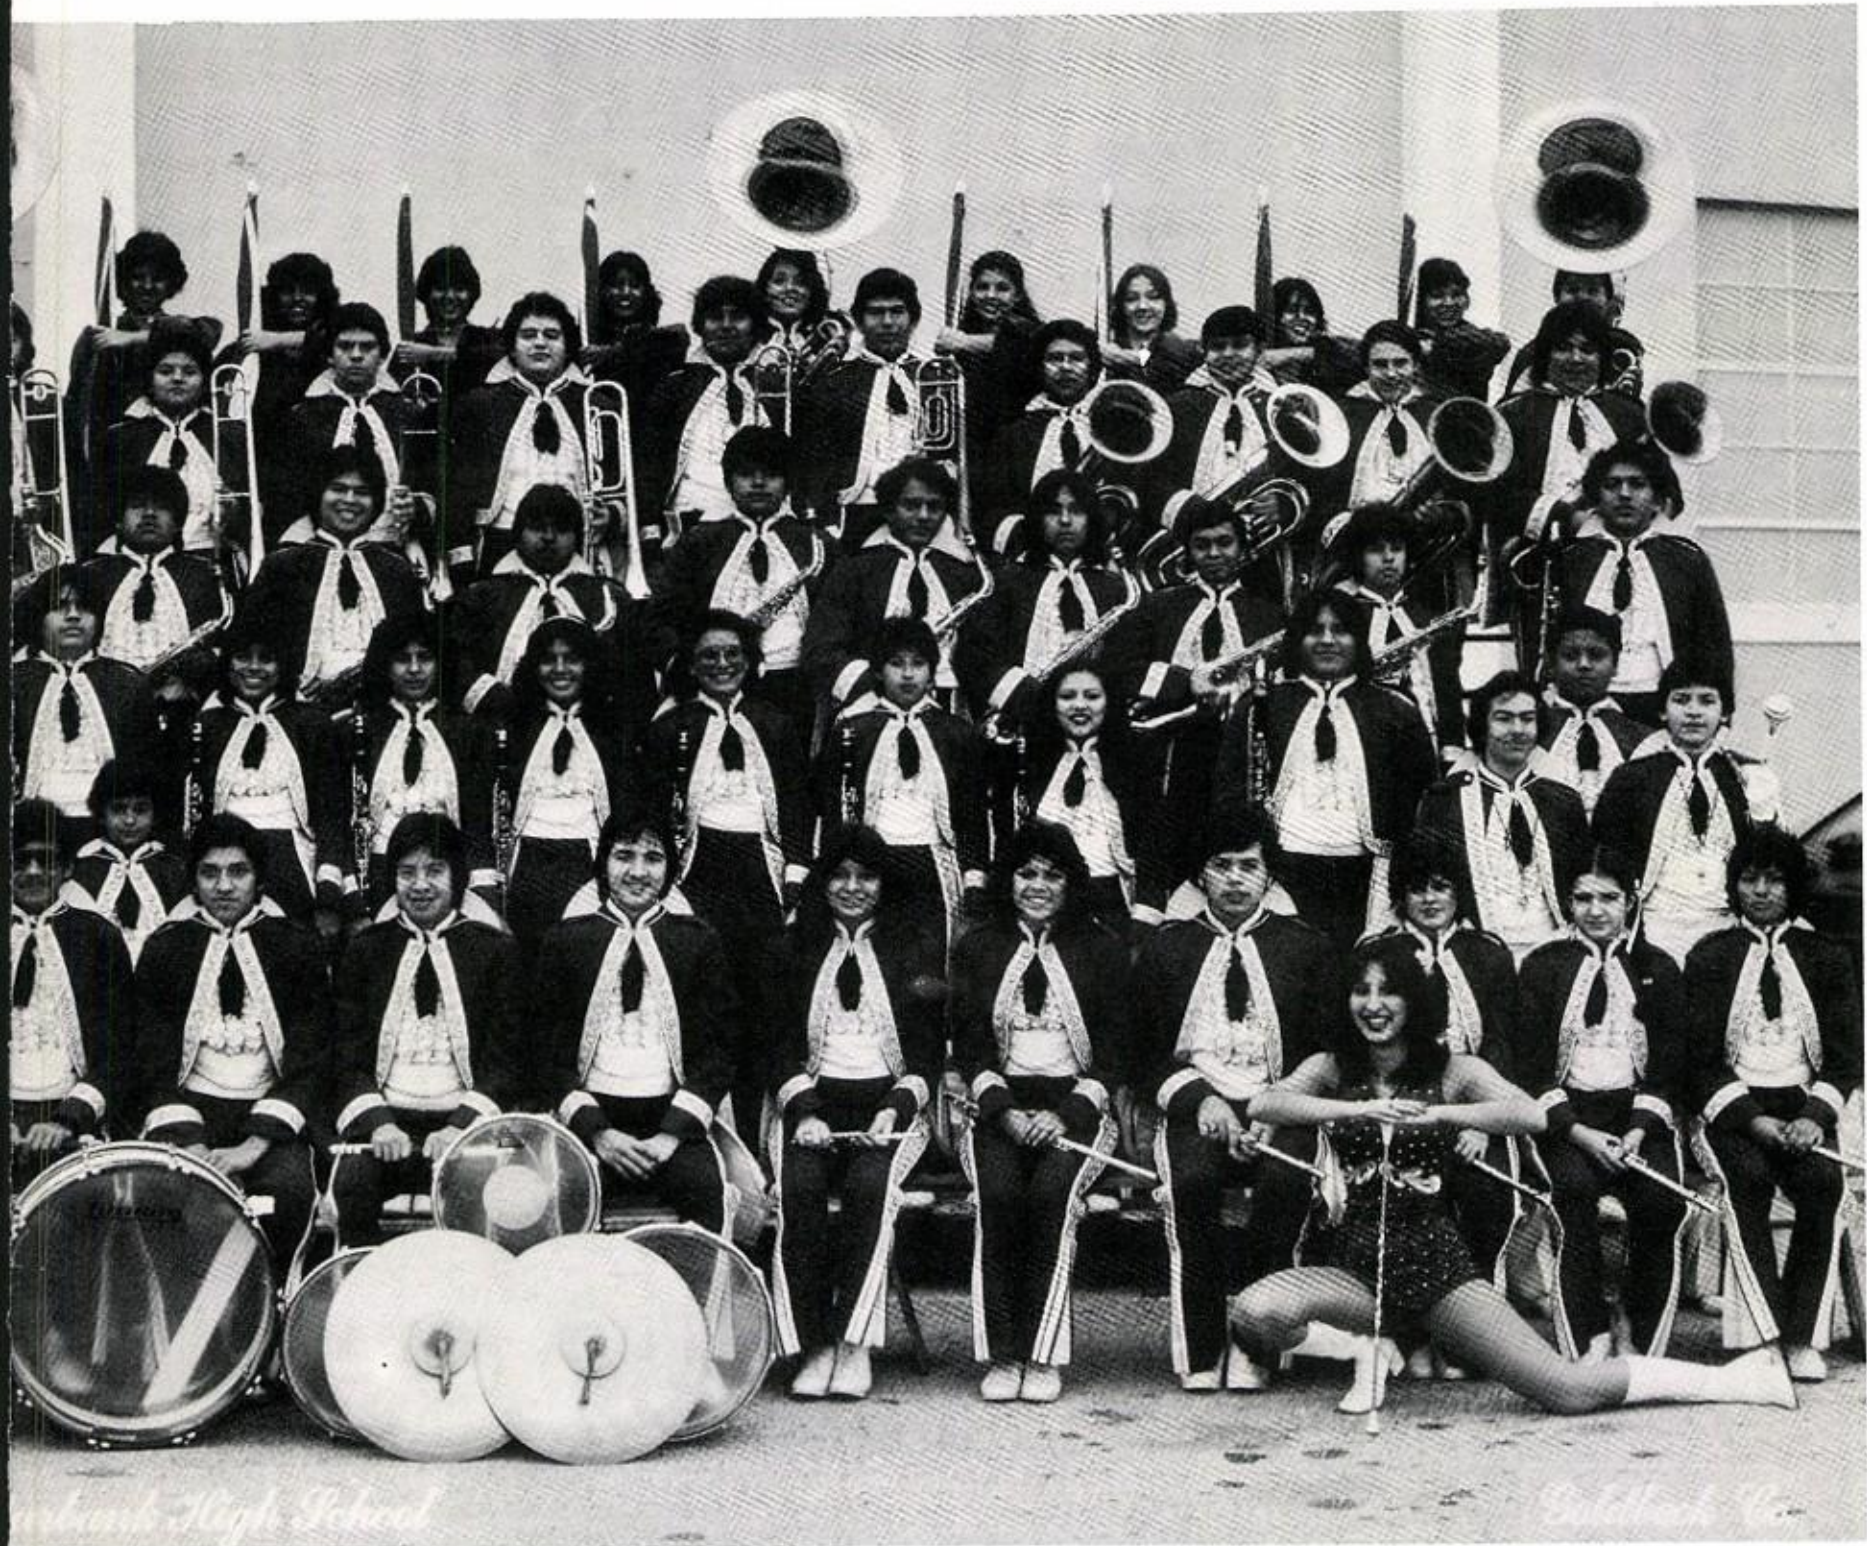

Laura Ramos competed in the science category and advanced to regionals.

Several U.I.L. participants were treated to snacks by Student Council.

Band members keep busy throughout year

Being able to be involved in many things is what it takes to be a part of the band. Throughout the year the students who are part of the band participate in many activities. Half time shows, parades, rodeo, and contests are just some of the many activities.

This year the band experienced something that had not occurred in many years. The band rated a 1 in U.I.L. marching competition. This brought much excitement and pride towards the band.

Although the band students have spent long hours perfecting their music and their marching, it can be seen that the results can be rewarding.

Michelle Carrillo manages a smile even after a long march.

Extra! Extra! read all about it

The Harvest consisted of nine dedicated students. These students worked hard before, during, and after school to publish 9 monthly issues. In addition to gathering stories for the newspaper they also worked in selling advertisements. Along with working on the paper the students participated in workshops and U.I.L. meets. This helped in improving the newspaper which was honored at the annual I.L.P.C. convention.

Concentration is needed while laying out the newspaper as shown by Kevin McStravic.

Veronica Urdialez puts much effort in putting the finishing touches to make the Harvest right.

Producing yearbooks provides friendships

Working on a yearbook is not an easy task. It takes many long hours; however, the Bark staff was always ready to put in that extra time.

All the work would have not been accomplished without the assistance of Maria Martinez, editor; Debbie Ramirez, asst. editor; Elva Gonzalez, business manager; Pat Ramos and Alma Polanco, photographers, and all other staff members.

Norma Dillard and Debbie Ramirez discuss plans for the future yearbook.

Fixing the wires and making them work

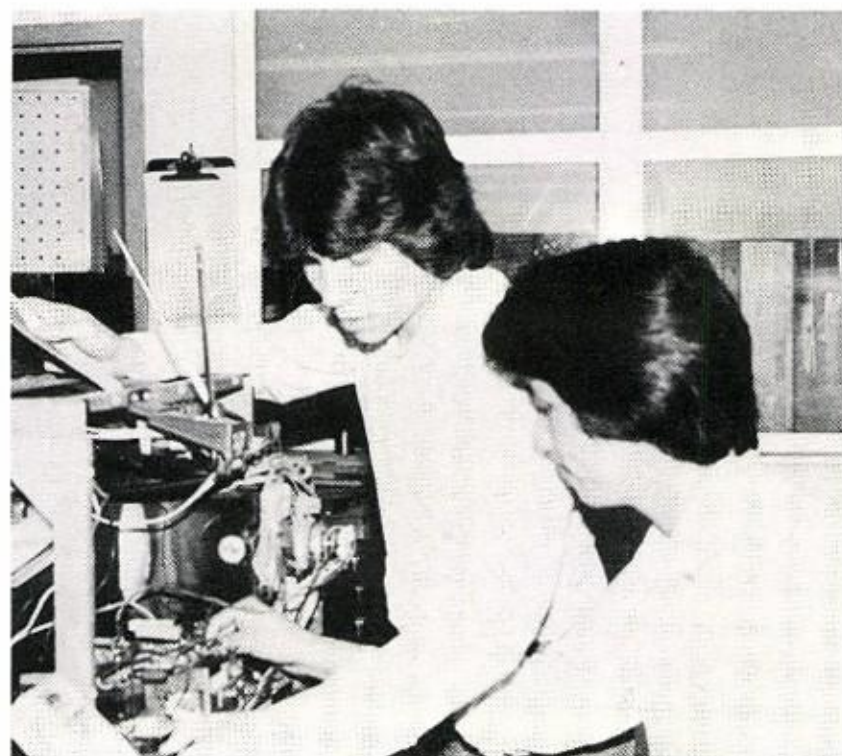

The course was formerly Radio/T.V. Repair. The name was changed because it now offers access to digital and computer electronics. Several members participated in U.I.L. district skills, bringing home two 2nd place ribbons and 1st, 2nd, & 4th place in the skills contest.

Mario Hernandez takes apart an old record player to find out the problem.

Victor Alcala and Daniel Nino work together on reassembling a television.

Welders work to perfection

Vocational Metal Trades is a three hour, three year course in the phases of metal work. These phases are welding, machine shop practices and sheet metal.

The skills of the metal workers are many. As an example, the welder must know at least four methods of joining metal. The sheet metal worker must know how to bend and form sheet metal into pipes and various shapes. The machinists must make parts from machines and engines that have complicated operations.

Mr. Schooley assists Danny Rodriguez with a project.

Joe Martinez carefully welds a piece of metal.

Traditional Mexican dancing keeps alive

Keeping to the beat is a part of being a dancer in the Ballet Folklórico. Throughout the year, the dancers got a chance to perform at various schools. Every year the dancers have performance for the school and they also have a chance to participate in a performance where they can qualify for a trophy.

Folk dancers participate in many activities and some may even have a chance to dance their way to the top.

Folk dancers provide entertainment at the annual school carnival.

Senior year highlighted by trip to Astroworld and prom

The senior year provides numerous activities. The year is usually highlighted by a senior trip. The '82 seniors went to "Senior Night" at Astroworld in Houston. The prom held at the downtown Hilton will be remembered as "Moonlight and Roses".

Waiting for the arrival of the buses can be tiresome as shown by Elvira Palmer.

Senior students took a trip to Houston's "Astroworld" on May 7th as part of "Senior Night".

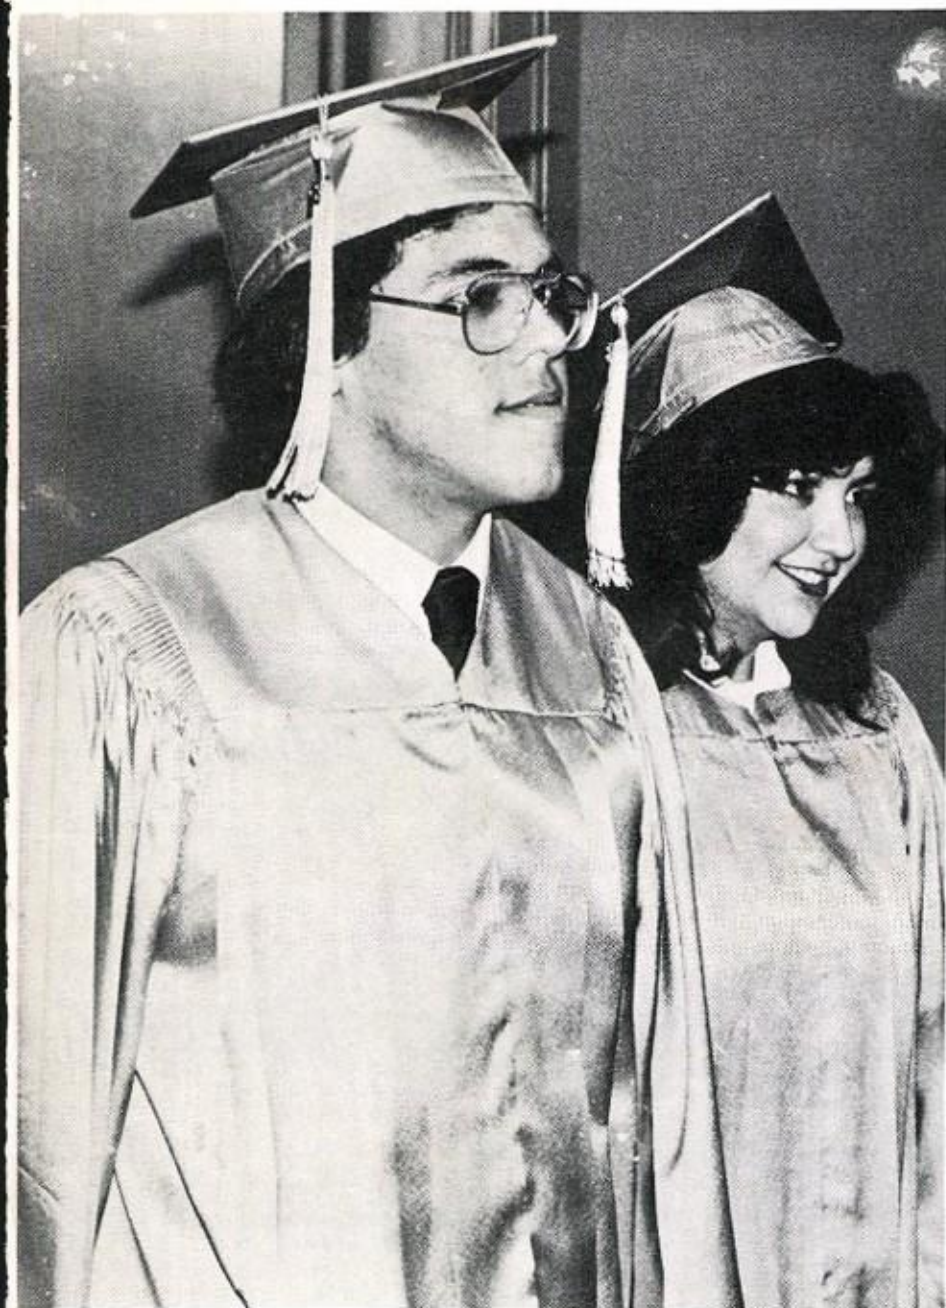

Senior, Elsie Garcia and escort smile at the "Moonlight and Roses" senior prom.

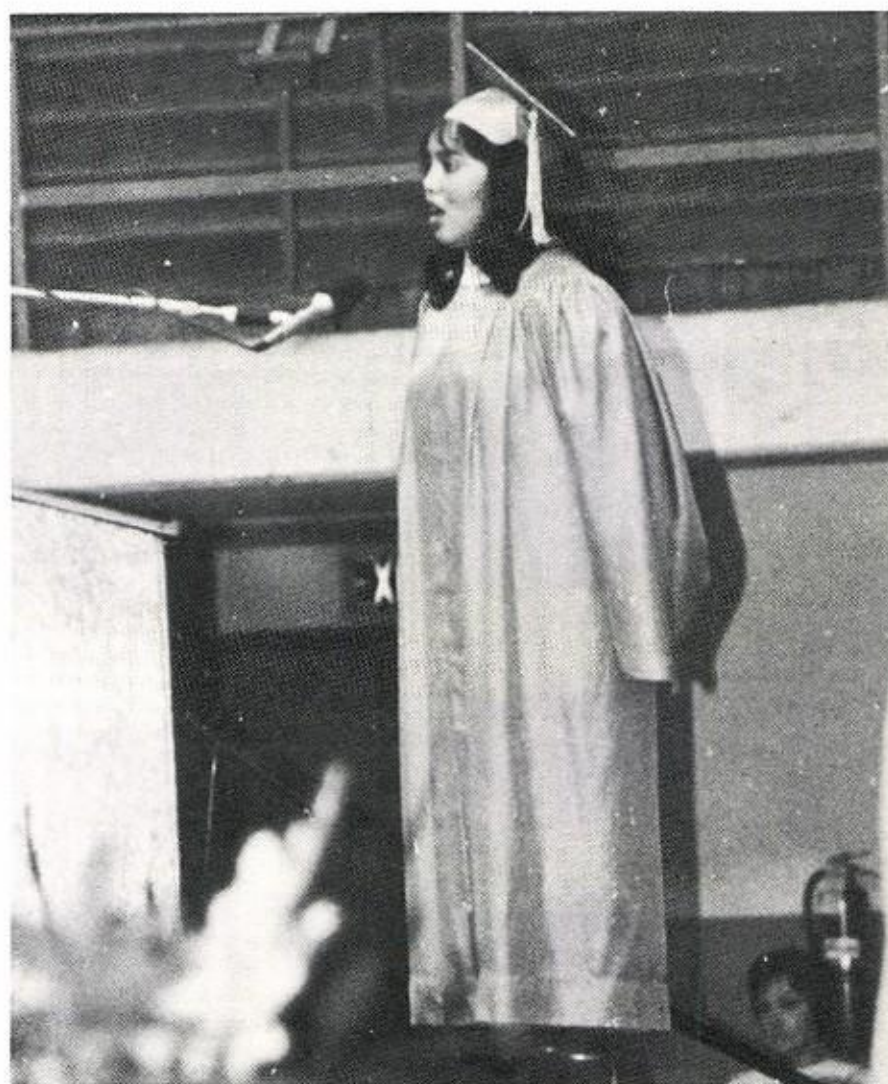

Toasting the occasion held at the downtown Hilton are Elva Gonzalez and Joe Reyes at the prom.

Seniors' final tasks

Vincent Flores and Susie Gonzales await their turn in line for the procession into the arena.

Pat Sierra puts forth all her effort into singing the class song.

Platform guests are an essential part of graduation.

Stella Aguilar waits for her name to be called.

Vincent Vaero takes part in the commencement exercises held at the Convention Center Arena on May 24.

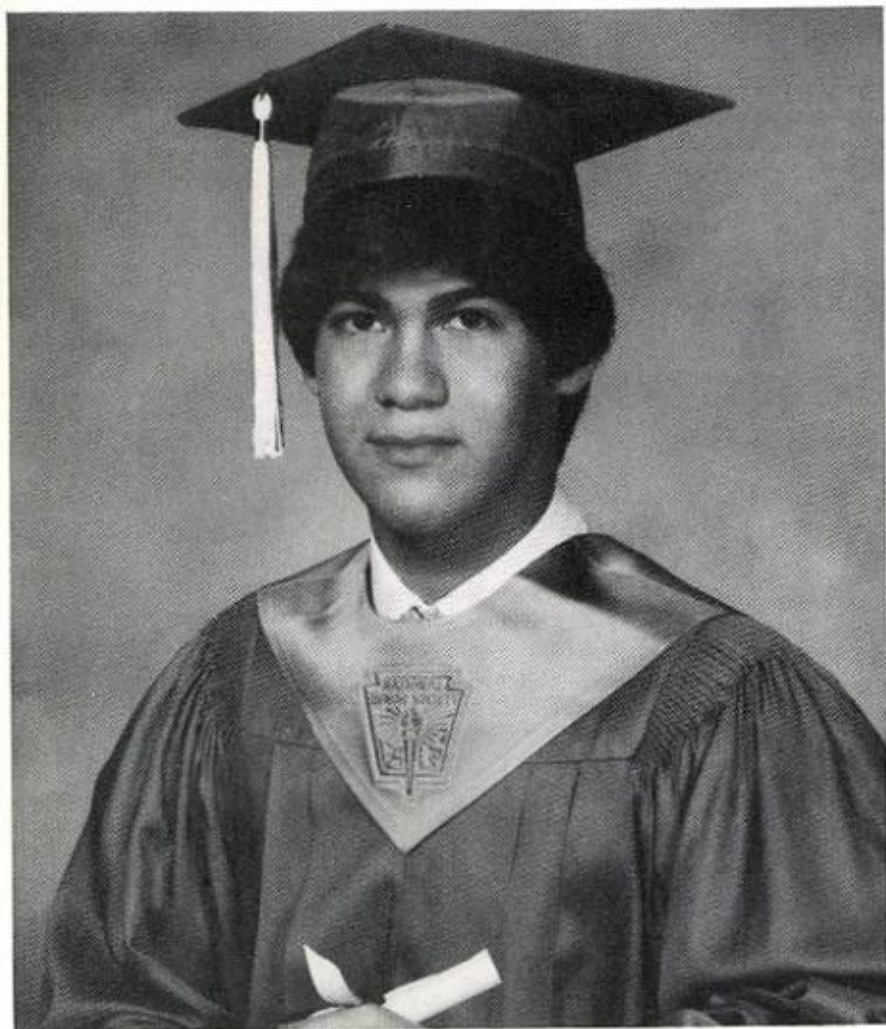

Seniors turn their tassels to carry on a tradition signifying the completion of their last year in high school.

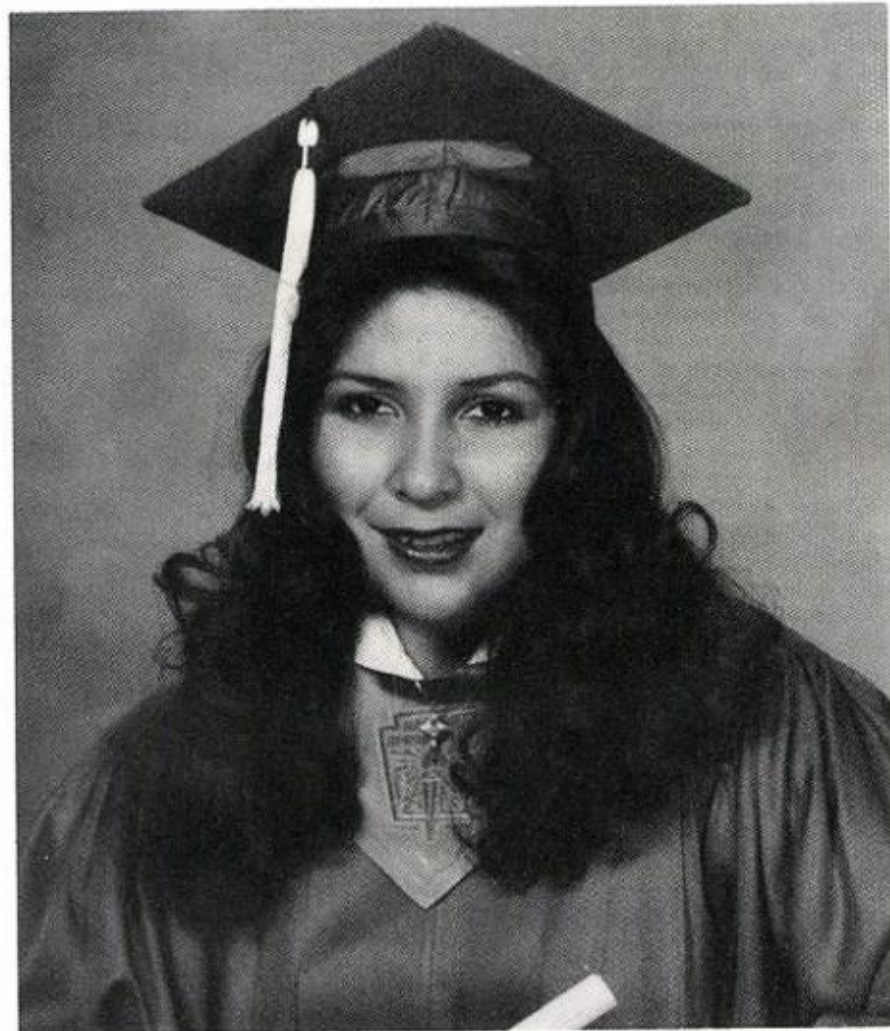

Sharon Valdez takes off the graduation gown.

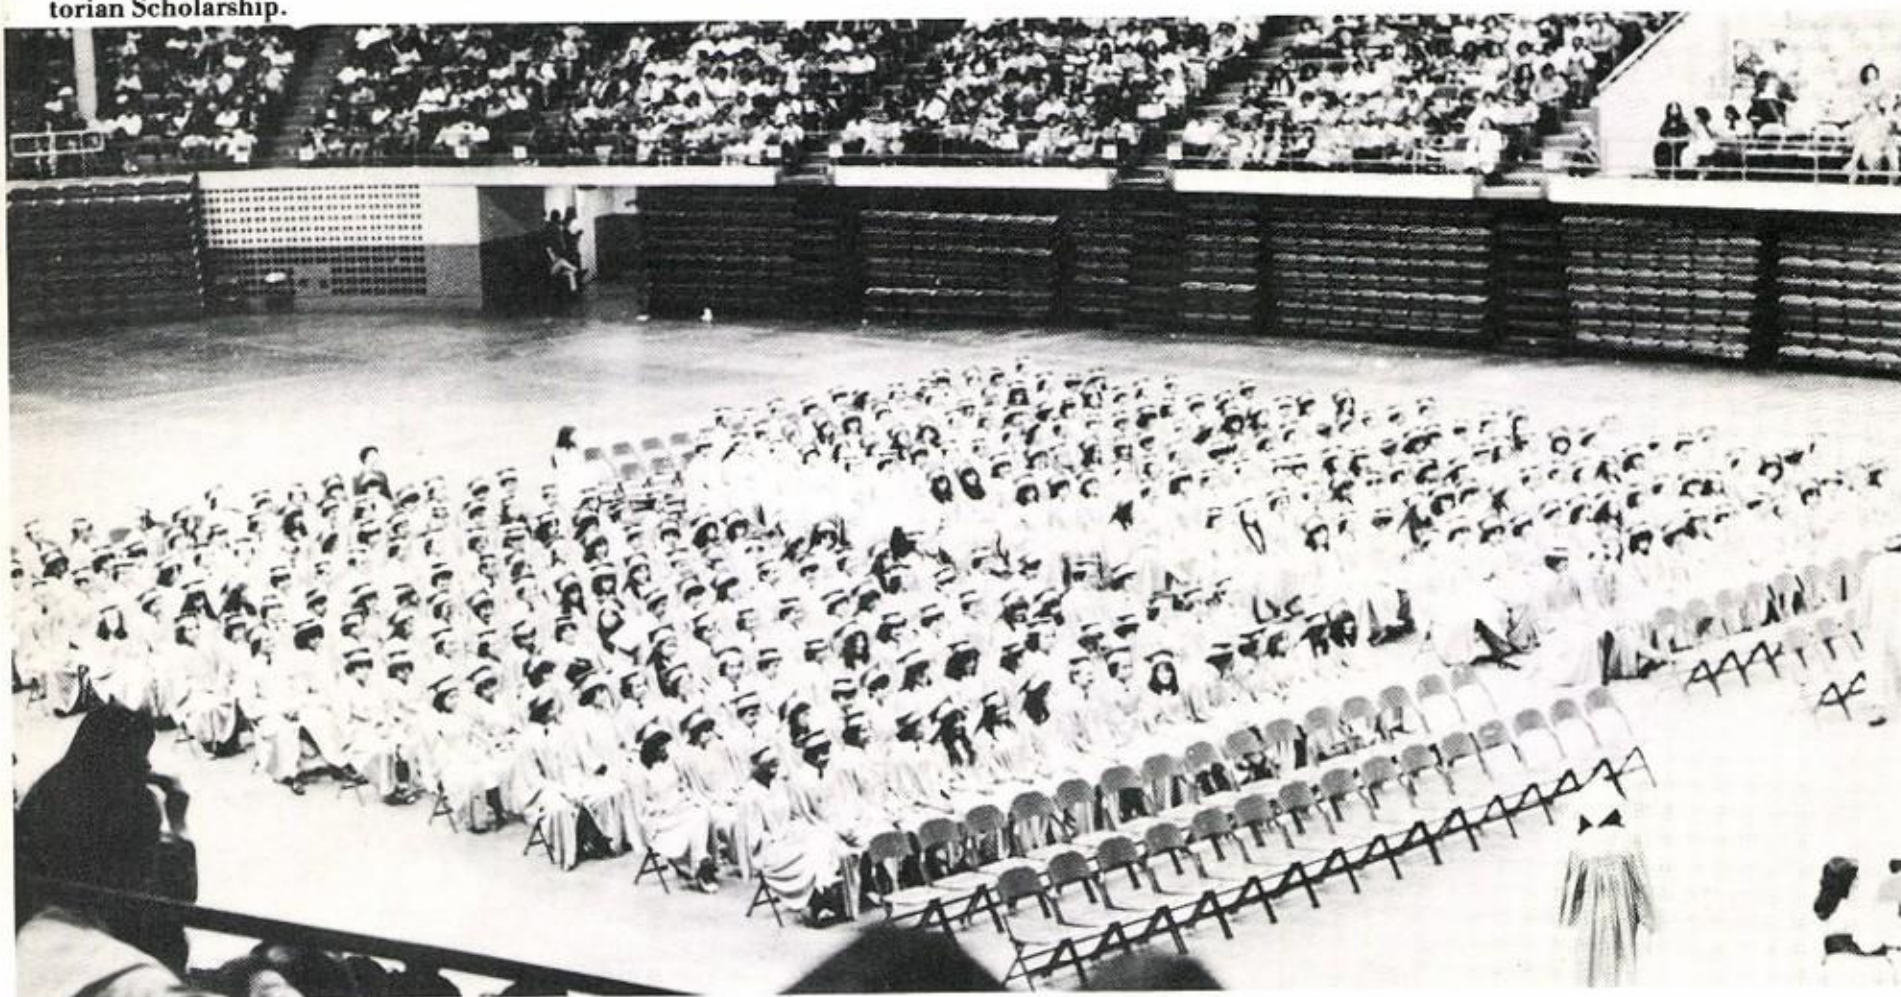

Espinoza and Gamboa selected for top honors

(Randall Espinoza, Valedictorian) Awards: National Society of Professional Engineers Scholarship, The Voice of Democracy Award, Texas A&M University, Presidents Achievement Award Scholarship, Trinity University, Presidents Scholar Award, Scholarship to Columbia University of Rochester, Incarnate Word College, Junior Scholar Award, National Honor Society Scholarship, and the State Valedictorian Scholarship.

(Judy Gamboa, Salutatorian) Awards: Recipient of Texas A&M University Presidents Achievement Award Scholarship, the University of Notre Dame, Notre Dame Scholar Award, Scholarship to Our Lady of the Lake University, Texas A&I University and the Orange Jackets Organization.

Seniors await final moment before they go out on their own.

AD'S & INDEX

Money, it's a crime. Share it fairly but don't take a slice of my pie.
 Money, so they say is the root of all evil today.
 Money, get back. I'm alright, just keep your hands off my stack.
 Money, it's a gas. Grab that cash with both hands and make a stash.

To The Class of 82
May life bring to each of you much happiness
If not, make your own!
Explore every avenue life offers to you and live each day to the fullest,
but most of all,
keep your chins up!

Music is the language of the people . . . We have grown up with the sounds of music, each one representing a specific moment in our lives. Together we walk hand in hand through our high school years, humming and whistling a tune that was appropriate for each moment.

We've all walked down a long and winding road together, each one of us waiting to encounter new experiences in the future. Though many will choose different roads, we know that we will all meet again in the end.

Special thanks go to Mrs. Carmen Rodriguez and the Bark staff for giving up much of their valuable time in putting this yearbook together.

Lemmons a very nice guy that I had the pleasure of meeting at Wilcrest. I've really enjoyed being your friend and hope to continue through the years to come.
Good Luck in the future
your friend always

P.S. Lemmons are sour, but you are sweet.

To Domingo

A very nice, sweet guy I met in my freshman year. Good luck in the future
and with the girls.
Good luck and I hope to see you next year.

To Domingo.
A very funny and ~~stuck~~
guy that's sweet! Anyway It's been nice having
you for homeroom.
And I hope to see
you much more.
Take care and
be good!
